

Contents

Preface	vii
List of abbreviations	ix
1. Concept and history	1
1. Responsibility and law	1
2. Legal nature of responsibility	2
3. Relationship between reparation and countermeasures	4
4. Primary and secondary obligations	6
5. Historical evolution of the law of State responsibility	8
6. Responsibility and sovereignty	12
7. Analogies with municipal law	13
8. State responsibility and international responsibility	15
9. Types of ‘civil’ responsibility	18
10. Constitutive elements of State responsibility	20
11. Unitary nature of State responsibility with regard to the sources of obligations	24
12. Special legal regimes of responsibility	26
13. The codification of State responsibility by the ILC	27
14. Digging deeper	30
2. Internationally wrongful act	34
1. General issues	34
2. The violation of a legally applicable obligation	35
3. Conduct: Acts or omissions; standard of conduct	38
4. Conduct: Obligations of conduct and obligations of result	41
5. Qualification of the IWA only through international law	45
6. Breach and temporal issues	48
7. Gravity of the breach; international crimes	54
8. Digging deeper	60
3. Attribution	70
1. General issues	70
2. Three main principles of the law of attribution	74
3. Organs placed at the disposal of another State	83
4. Attribution of ultra vires and private acts	85

5. Attribution by ad hoc endorsement	88
6. Attribution of acts of insurrectional movements	93
7. Acts of persons acting in a private capacity	99
8. Digging deeper	102
4. Circumstances precluding wrongfulness	109
1. General issues	109
2. Consent (Article 20 ASR)	114
3. Self-defence (Article 21 ASR)	118
4. Countermeasures (reprisals) (Article 22 ASR)	120
5. Force majeure (Article 23 ASR)	121
6. Distress (Article 24 ASR)	125
7. State of necessity (Article 25 ASR)	128
8. Peremptory norms as a limit for the plea of CPWs	135
9. Equitable compensation for material loss	137
10. Digging deeper	138
5. Legal effects of responsibility	148
1. General aspects	148
2. Reparation	149
3. Countermeasures	173
4. Diplomatic and functional protection	185
5. Digging deeper	203
6. Issues of collective and ancillary responsibility	215
1. Collective unlawful conduct	215
2. Responsibility for conduct of member States within an international organization	221
3. Member State responsibility for conduct of an international organization	225
4. Digging deeper	228
7. Conclusion	231
Bibliography	234
Table of Reports of Special Rapporteurs of the ILC on State Responsibility for Internationally Wrongful Acts	235
Appendix 1: Articles on Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts (2001)	237
Appendix 2: Draft Articles on the Responsibility of International Organizations (2011)	252
Appendix 3: Draft Articles on Diplomatic Protection (2006)	268
Index	273