Index

accommodation
  at marriage, Italy 72–8 see also co-residence; home ownership Achenbaum, A.E. 1
adult children, see children affectual dimensions, intergenerational relationships 89
age
  and family support 249
  and family support for accommodation 80
age balance of populations 21–5 age balanced organisations 32 age segregation 26–32 consequences of 29–32
  and privatisation 27–9
age structure of networks 29–30 ageing population 21–5
Allan, G. 230
Altonji, J.G. 108
altruism 107–9
Amato, P.R. 196
Antonucci, T.C. 109
Apple, D. 25
Ariès, P. 28
associative dimension,
  intergenerational relationships 89 attachment approach and intergenerational contact 99–100
Attias-Donfut, C. 7, 113, 114, 277, 305

beanpole families 105
Beck, U. 231
Becker, G. 126
Belgium, eldercare provision 154
Bengtson, V.L. 1, 105, 222 bequests and home ownership transmission 63
Bertram, H. 5
Blumberg, R.L. 126
book-end generations 25–6
Börsch-Supan, A. 108
Bovenberg, A.L. 229
boys, lack of male role models 30–31 Braithwaite, V. 32
broken parent–child relationships 222–3
Brooks, A.C. 118
Cantor, M.H. 218
care-for-inheritance contract 79–81 care for parents, effect of public care services 151–64; see also children, care for parents; public care, effect on family care; public care services care provision and parent–child contact 157–62
care transfers 10
caregiving models 217–18 childhood, privatisation of 28 childless people, intergenerational relationships 14
childlessness 14, 15, 56 Netherlands 219–21, 226, 230
children
  attitudes to supporting parents 243–5
  availability to provide care 132–3, 219–21
care for parents, effect of public care services 151–64
  see also public care, effect on family care; public care services contact with parents 32, 40, 90–91, 174, 182, 222–8
  see also co-residence and parent–child contact; contact frequency, parent–child; divorce
  and parent–child contact;
  parent–child contact;
  remarriage and parent–child

313
contact; separation and parent–child contact divorced, effect on parent–child contact 196–7 financial support from migrants 271–5, 277–81 see also downward support, migrant families; financial support, migrant families personal care for parents 10–12, 123–43, 162 see also care for parents; welfare regimes, effect on children's care for parents as personal network members for older adults 219, 224–5, 227–8 relationships with older people 29–30 remaining dependent 9 support from parents 38–55 see also parents; siblings class, see social class co-residence 44, 64, 74, 76–7, 80, 82–3, 93, 130, 185–7, 189, 224, 229–30 and care for elderly 79–80
children and divorced parents 178–82, 185–6, 189
Italy 74, 201–2
Japan 111
migrant families, Germany 293–5
Netherlands 224
and parent–child contact 189, 204
cognitive support 89, 92, 289, 291 migrant families 295–7, 305
cohabitation, see co-residence Coleman, J.S. 30, 32 community care, see public care services conflict and intergenerational contact 98 consensual dimension, intergenerational relationships 89 contact frequency, parent–child 153 divorced parents and children 178–82

Netherlands 222–8
and sibling care-giving 161
Conti, C. 25
Cox, D. 114
cross-age interaction programmes 32–3 crowding in 11, 107, 112, 114, 128, 150 cultural age segregation 27 cultural factors
and intergenerational solidarity 124–6
and intergenerational transfers, immigrants 261–2, 271–5, 300–304 De Jong Gierveld, J. 196, 204, 224 defamilialisation 147–51 demography of families 21–5 Denmark
divorce and parent–child contact 209–11, 212 derel anticipated needs 156 dependent adult children 9 depression and divorced parents 176 divorce
children, divorced, effect on parent–child contact 196–7 and gender roles 172–3, 177–8, 189
and grandparent–grandchild contact 206–7
and intergenerational contact 194–212, 228, 229
Italy 197–212
and intergenerational relationships 12–13, 170–90, 228, 229
and parent–child contact 195–7, 203–5
see also divorced children; divorced fathers, relations with children; fathers, divorced; financial support, effect of divorce; gender role conditions and divorce rate; mothers, divorced, relationships with children; parents, divorced; separation divorced children
Europe 46
parental support 50–54, 55
see also divorce
divorced fathers, relations with children 170–90, 198 downward support 245, 250
migrant families, Germany 297
duration of family ties 23 of generational roles 8–9 economic status and home care help provision 131 education level and care-giving 125–6 and co-residence, Italy 74 and family support for accommodation, Italy 75
and parent–child contact 182, 204
Eggebeen, D. 31, 196
Elder, G. 8
elderly people care arrangements, Europe 153–7 care for, and home ownership transfer 79–81
financial support 244, 256
and generativity 31 motives for care 107–12 non-kin relationships with children 29–30 public care, effect on family care 105–18
see also crowding in; crowding out emotional closeness 92–4, 97–8, 100, 240, 248, 252–5, 288, 293
and intergenerational contact 97
emotional support 89, 92, 99, 108, 110, 123, 126, 144, 218, 257, 289, 291 migrant families 295–7, 305
employment status and caregiving 141
and parent–child contact 228–9 Erikson, E.H. 25, 31 exchange hypothesis 107, 108 Famiglia e Soggetti Sociali 67 familialism and gender role conditions 173 see also family support; intergenerational support familialistic welfare regime and home ownership transfer 59–84
Italy 67–81
families and ageing population 21–5 formation patterns 12–14 multigenerational 5–8 size trends, Netherlands 219 support, see family support see also children; grandparent relationships; intergenerational relationships; parents familistic values, effect on home care help for parents 140 family life, migrants, France 266–7 family policy and demography of families 23–5 Family and Social Subjects (FSS) survey 199 family support 13, 38, 40, 54, 60, 148, 150–51, 236, 237–8, 239, 244, 254, 307 effect of public support 105–18, 250–52 housing 59–84
international comparison 39–55 see also financial support; intergenerational support family values and social class 125 Farkas, J.I. 7
fathers, divorced contact with children, Italy 198 relations with children 170–90 fear and age segregation 28 filial expectations 232
financial support 10, 44, 133, 241–56, 275–81
attitudes to 241–5
direction 250
effect of divorce 196
migrant families France 259–64, 267–75, 281–3 Germany 297–307
motives for giving 252–3
Finch, J. 111, 237
France elder care provision 154–6 intergenerational transfers, migrants 259–64, 267–75, 281–3 migrant characteristics 264–7 parental support for adult children 52–4
Friedman, B.N. 118
Index

functionality, intergenerational relationships 89

Gelissen, J.P.T.M. 172

gender and caregiving 70, 81, 126–7, 140 and family housing support 75
and financial support 247–9, 255
and population age balance 22–3 gender inequalities and social care provision 158–9
gender role conditions 171, 173, 238 and divorce rate 172–3, 177–8, 189 and effect of divorce on parent–child relationships 171–2, 182–90
generational roles 8–9 measurements 177
generations, definitions 20–21
generativity 31–2
geographical proximity, see proximity

German Ageing Survey 289

Germany
eledercare provision 156
intergenerational relationships 91–8
migrant families 285–307
parental support for adult children 52–4
Giarrusso, R. 105
Giddens, A. 231
Gierveld, J. 29
Gilleard, C.J. 231
givers of support, social profiles 247–9 motives for giving 107–12, 252–3
Gouldner, A.W. 109
grandchildhood 7
grandparent relationships, effect of divorce 194, 195
Grundy, E. 6

hierarchy of support 218
Higgs, P 231
Hogan, D.P. 7
home ownership
family support 63–4
forms 61–3
intergenerational transmission 59–84
and care for elderly 79–81
Italy 67–81
Southern Europe 64–7
Hopkins, P. 25, 26
horizontal support 245, 250 household help 123–43; see also instrumental help Humphrey, H. 25

immigrants, see migrants Immigrants and Retirement Survey (PRI), France 263
impure altruism 108
in-kind transfer of home ownership 63–4
income
and care needs 135
and home care help provision 140
and home ownership 65
institutional age segregation 26–7 instrumental support
migrant families, Germany 297–300
see also household help; material support
inter vivos transfers of home ownership 63 intergenerational ambivalence 222
intergenerational contact 90–91, 92–8 effect of marital instability 194–212 intergenerational independence 229 intergenerational relations 1–15, 20, 59, 62, 68–9, 88–101, 105–18, 124, 135, 142, 194–6, 204, 209, 211,
217–18, 222, 226, 228, 230–32, 236–56, 286–7, 291, 295
bookend generations 20–22
contact with adult children 222–8 and marital breakdown 170–90, 194–212
and social stratification 124–8 and state support 105–18, 127–8, 147–64, 250–52
intergenerational support 9–12
for adult children 38–55 effect of state support 105–18, 250–52
for elderly 217–32
home ownership transmission 59–84
motivations for 116–17
intergenerational transfers, immigrants 259–83
Europe 275–81
France 263–75
Germany 297–300
International Social Survey Program (ISSP) 5
Italy
  eldercare provision 156
  home ownership transmission 67–81 kinship structure change 5 marital instability and intergenerational contact 197–212
Jackson, J.S. 109
Jensen, A.-M. 23
Jensen, R.T. 114
Jiminez, E. 114
Khanna, J. 107
kinkeeper roles 170, 172
kinship regimes and welfare regimes 1–2 Knipscheer, K. 23
Knoester, C. 196
Kohli, M. 116, 143
Künemund, H. 107, 115, 116, 143, 150
Liefbroer, A.C. 224
Litwak, E. 217
Lowenstein, A. 115–16
Luescher, K. 222
Lund, F. 114
male role models for boys 30–31 marital break-up, see divorce marital instability and intergenerational relationships 12–13, 194–212 marital status and proximity to children 201–3 marital transitions and availability of children 220–21 market channels for home purchase 62–3 Marpsat, M. 260
Mason, J. 111, 237
material support for divorced parents 196, 207–8 see also financial support Matthäi, I. 298
McNally, J. 224
Mead, M. 30
men childlessness, impact of 14 divorce, impact of 206, 211, 266 societal generativity 31–2 widowhood, impact of 206, 209, 211–12, 266 Mestres, J. 142
migrants attitudes to family support 238–9 financial support, Sweden 249, 254
France 264–7
intergenerational transfers 267–75
Germany 285–307
characteristics 289–93
numbers 285
family proximity 293–5
support potential 295–300
intergenerational transfers 259–83, 285–307 migration, effect on intergenerational relationships 15, 287–9 Motel, A. 116
Motel-Klingebiel, A. 116 mothers, divorced, relationships with children 171 motives for care-giving 107–12 for giving financial support 252–3, 271–5 for intergenerational support 116–17 multigenerational family patterns 5–7
Murphy, M. 15
Nauck, B. 306
networks, age structure 29–30 non-kin networks 29
normative aspects, intergenerational relationships 89, 97–8 norms and altruistic behaviour 124–5
and care for elderly 111
of obligation 111, 232
see also social norms
north–south gradient, intergenerational support 10–11, 44
Ogg, J. 115–16
Old Age and Autonomy (OASIS) 115 older people, see elderly people Pain, R. 25, 26
Pakenham, K.I. 31
parent–child co-residence, see co-residence
parent–child contact
after divorce 178–90, 195–7 contact frequency and care provision 161–2 Netherlands 222–8
parent–child distance, see proximity, parent–child parent–child relationships effect of divorce/separation 12–13, 170–90, 195–7, 203–5, 228, 229
migrant families, Germany 295–6 parenthood and family support 38, 50–51, 55 parenthood status of children 46 parents divorced 12–13, 170–90, 195–7, 203–5, 228, 229 personal care help from adult children 123–43
effect of state support 127–8, 147–64 support for adult children 38–55 partners, effect on home care help 140 Paugam, S. 260
payment for family care 149 Peeters, A. 196, 204
personal care and household help (PCHH) 123–43 personal network members, older adults 224–5
Peterson, B.E. 31
Phillipson, C. 230
Pillemer, K. 222
Pitrou, A. 1
population ageing and families 2–3, 21–5 practical support 246–7, 250 private support, see family support privatisation and age segregation 27–9 Prouteau, L. 261
proximity, parent–child
effect of divorce 178–82, 185–6
and family support 60–61, 78–9, 81, 125
and intergenerational contact 96–7, 153, 228
and marital status 201–3
migrant families, Germany 293–5
public care, effect on family care 142–3, 147–51, 157–64; see also public care services public care services 153–7 effect on family care 142–3, 147–51, 157–64 and social strata 127–8
see also crowding in; crowding out;
state support; welfare regimes Qureshi, H. 111
reciprocity norms and caregiving 109–10, 111, 124–5
Reher, S.D. 15
Rein, M. 107, 115, 150
religion of migrants, France 265–6 and motives for giving to children 271, 272, 275 remarriage and availability of children 220–21
and grandparent–grandchild contact 206–7
and intergenerational relationships 13–14
and parent–child contact 196, 203–5 remittances, migrant families, see financial support Riley, J.W. 32
Riley, M.W. 32
Roberts, R.D. 106
Robertson, J. 24, 30, 33 role models, lack of male 30; see also gender; male role models for boys; men; women
roles, gender 170–73, 177–8, 182, 185–90 roles, generational 8–9 Sandler, T. 107
Saraceno, C. 1–19, 85, 118, 143, 194–216
Sarasa, S. 142
Segalen, M. 7, 15
separation
and grandparent–grandchild contact 206–7
Index

and parent–child contact 203–5
see also divorce
sex, see gender Sgritta, G.B. 25
SHARE (Survey of Health, Ageing and Retirement in Europe) 5, 23, 40, 128–9, 151, 173–4 sibling number 70, 72, 74–7, 91, 96–8, 132, 140, 143 and co-residence 74
and family support 75
Silverstein, M. 222
Snarey, J.R. 31
social class
and attitudes to family support 239, 244–5 and caregiving to parents 141 and family values 125
and financial support 247, 250
and home ownership 65
and intergenerational solidarity 124–8
and receipt of public care 127 social exchange theory and intergenerational contact 99 social inequality and intergenerational integration 4 social norms and altruistic behaviour 124–5 social production of home ownership 61–3 social security system effect on reciprocity-oriented behaviour 110
Sweden 237
see also state support social services, eldercare 153–7 effect on family relations 147–51, 157–64 socialisation, effect of age segregation 30–31
societal generativity 31–2 socioeconomic status and children’s caregiving to parents 125–6, 132–3
and home care help provision 131
see also social class solidarity dimensions 89 solidarity, intergenerational, see intergenerational support Spain
eldercare provision 156
parental support for adult children 52–4 spatial age segregation 27 Speare, A. 224
state support, effect on family support 105–18; see also crowding in; crowding out; public care services; welfare state step-families, intergenerational contact 98 step-relationships 220–21 structural dimension, intergenerational relationships 89 Sundström, G. 115
support, intergenerational, see intergenerational support Survey of Health, Ageing and Retirement in Europe (SHARE) 5, 23, 40, 128–9, 151, 173–4
Sweden
divorce and parent–child contact 209–11, 212
eldercare provision 156
intergenerational support 52–4, 236–56
welfare state 237 task specificity model 217–18
Thomése, G.C.F. 230, 231 time transfers 10, 133
Townsend, P. 107
trade-off, employment and caring time 125 Uhlenberg, P. 29, 31, 33 upward support 245, 250
migrant families, Germany 297
value-of-children approach 99–100 van der Pas, S. 228, 229
van Tilburg, T.G. 230, 231
Vanderbeck, R. 27, 28
Verhäslichung 28
Verinselung 28
vertical family structures 3–4, 23 welfare provision by family, see family support welfare regimes effect on children’s care for parents 135–41 effect on intergenerational solidarity 127–8 and kinship regimes 1–2 welfare system, familialistic 59–84 widowhood and contact with grandchildren 206–7 and material intergenerational support 208–9 widowed children, Europe 46

Willmott, P. 1
Wolff, F.C. 261
women
  as caregivers 126–7, 140 working, impact on intergenerational contracts 2
Young, M. 1
Zoyem, J.P. 260