References

Elias, P. (1997), ‘Occupational classification (ISCO-88), concepts, methods, reliability, validity and cross-national comparability’, OECD, Directorate for Employment, Labour and Social Affairs labour market and social policy occasional papers 20.

Eurofound (2006), Fifteen years of working conditions in the EU: charting the trends, Dublin: Eurofound.

Eurofound (2009), Childcare services in Europe, Dublin: Eurofound.

Measuring more than money

Jencks, C., L. Perman, and L. Rainwater (1988), ‘What is a good job? A

Martin, A. and G. Psacharopoulos (1982), ‘The reward for risk in the labour market: evidence from the United Kingdom and reconciliation with other studies’, Journal of Political Economy, 90 (4), 827–53.

Sehnbruch, K. (2004), ‘From the quantity to the quality of employment: an application of the capability approach to the Chilean labour market’, Center for Latin American Studies working paper no. 9.

Measuring more than money

Conditions and Health and Safety Surveys in Europe: Stocktaking, Challenges and Perspectives, European Trade-Union Institute, Brussels 18–19 March.

