

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1. Do rules and regulations bind or boost economic growth? Emiel F.M. Wubben	1
PART ONE: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS
2. IPR regulations in need of revision Piet Schalkwijk	21
3. Breeder's rights and patents: competing IPR systems that mean to stimulate innovation Niels P. Louwaars and Hans J.M. Dons	29
4. The role and contribution of intellectual property rights in the process of spillover of knowledge, knowledge valorization and regional economic development P.H. van Dongen	47
PART TWO: GENERAL FOOD LAW
5. Food legislation and competitiveness in the EU food industry Jo H.M. Wijnands, Harry J. Bremmers, Bernd M.J. van der Meulen and Krijn J. Poppe	67
6. The EU precautionary principle impacts both food safety and market entry and competitiveness Miguel Ángel Recuerda Girela	97

7. Public mandatory and private voluntary standards: challenge or opportunity for small-scale farmers' participation in global supply chains? Margret Will	113
PART THREE: BANKING
8. How to reconcile public risks and private interests in the banking industry Marco van Hengel and Klaas Knot	151
9. The use of capital requirements to reconcile social and private interests in the banking industry Maarten Gelderman	171
10. The macroeconomics of the credit crisis: in search of externalities for macro prudential supervision Frank A.G. den Butter	187
Index	211