

Contents

List of contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xv
Foreword	xvii
Preamble	xx
Introduction: integration for third-country nationals in the EU – the challenge of equality	xxiv
Sonia Morano-Foadi

PART I FRAMEWORK CHAPTERS

1	The evolution of the concept of union citizenship after the Lisbon Treaty Elspeth Guild	3
2	The equality clauses in the EU directives on non- discrimination and migration/asylum Sonia Morano-Foadi and Karin de Vries	16
3	Integration policy at European Union level Micaela Malena and Sonia Morano-Foadi	45

PART II-1 ASYLUM-SEEKERS AND REFUGEES: CASE STUDIES ON THE UK, ITALY AND GREECE

4	Inequality for asylum-seekers and people entitled to protection in the European Union Madeline V. Garlick	71
5	The United Kingdom's implementation of the EU asylum- seekers' Reception Directive Katia Bianchini	91
6	Refugee integration in Italy: shortcomings and future scenarios Micaela Malena	107

7	Equal before the law? The case of asylum procedures and detention of asylum-seekers in Greece Evangelia (Lilian) Tsourdi	124
PART II-2 ECONOMIC MIGRANTS AND LONG-TERM RESIDENTS: CASE STUDIES ON BELGIUM, GERMANY, SPAIN, THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES AND THE UK
8	Third-country nationals, integration and access to employment and occupation under EU Law Moritz Jesse	145
9	Care, labour and migration policies in Germany: implications for the rights of migrant domestic and care workers Maria Kontos	167
10	Immigration policies in Finland: economic marginalisation and the residence-based welfare regime's support for humanitarian migrants Aino Saarinen in collaboration with Susanna Mehtonen	185
11	The EU researcher directive and its implementation in German immigration law Kay Hailbronner	209
12	Long-term residents' integration in Spain at a crossroads: rights-based approach or downhill towards restrictiveness? Diego Acosta Arcarazo	231
13	Access to employment and occupation in Belgium, Germany and the United Kingdom Moritz Jesse	248
PART II-3 FAMILY MEMBERS: CASE STUDIES ON GERMANY, THE NETHERLANDS AND SPAIN
14	Inequalities of family members of EEA and non-EEA nationals: 'integration' and barriers to family reunification in the post-Lisbon era Keith Puttick and Cordelia Carlitz	271
15	Language skills as a requirement for family reunification of spouses in Germany: respecting respect for family life? Cordelia Carlitz	303
16	The Dutch Act on Integration Abroad: a case of racial or ethnic discrimination? Karin de Vries	324

17	The adaptation of Spanish Law on family reunification to International and European Law Carmen Pérez González	346
	Conclusions Sonia Morano-Foadi and Micaela Malena	363
	Index	369