Index

acid rain 92, 438–9
acidification of sea water see ocean acidification actors/institutions for protection of marine environment 57–78 institutions, marine environmental protection legal framework and 66–71 development of normative framework 66–7 provision of independent information and advice 68–70 technical and financial assistance 70–71 multiplicity of international institutions involved 58–65 environmental treaty bodies 64–5
international economic organizations 64
International Seabed Authority 62–3 Regional Fisheries Management Organizations 63–4
UN 58–61
UN specialized agencies 61–2 non-governmental organizations, marine environment protection and 71–3 non-state actors and developing international rules 71–2 potential problems from multiplicity of institutions 73–7 cooperation between institutions 74–5 fragmentation, threat to 73–4 system-wide coordination of law and policy 75–7 UN-Oceans, creation of 76–7
Advisory Body of Experts on the Law of the Sea 330
Agenda 21 (1992) 89
Chapter 17 (oceans/marine environment) 342–3, 351–2 sustainable development 47
Antarctic
Antarctic Treaty 279–80, 395, 464, 469–70
Antarctic Treaty, Madrid Protocol to 279, 308
EIAs 300
Antarctic Treaty System 279, 395, 445–6
CCAMLR 279
Polar Code see Polar Code protected areas 280–81
Antarctic Specially Managed Areas 279–80
Antarctic Specially Protected Areas 280
Antarctic Treaty see under Antarctic Arctic Agreement on Cooperation, Marine Oil Pollution, Preparedness, Response 200–201 Arctic Council 195, 200–201, 365
climate change 363, 380
biodiversity, threat to 364 retreat of sea ice 200, 363, 380, 451 temperatures 200, 451
marine ecosystems 363–4, 452
ocean acidification 444–5
Arctic Ocean Acidification Assessment 445 Kiruna Declaration 444–5
offshore oil and gas activities 200–201
Arctic Council guidelines 200–201 OSPAR 201
seabed/subfloor of Arctic Ocean, issues with access to 331 shipping, regulating see Arctic shipping, regulating Arctic shipping, regulating 363–84 Arctic coastal state environmental jurisdiction, Polar Code and 375–82 assessment 382–3
Polar Code as enabling factor 375–8
Polar Code as restrictive factor 379–82
Arctic coastal state shipping regulations 373–83 coastal states’ competence to regulate navigation 364 extended environmental jurisdiction 374–5 general 373–4
‘normal’ coastal state environmental jurisdiction 374 Polar Code and Arctic coastal state environmental jurisdiction 375–82 higher risk of environmental damage from Arctic shipping 364 increase in Arctic shipping 363, 364

473
Polar Code see Polar Code
Area
Clarion-Clipperton Zone 165–8 common heritage of mankind, as 11, 151, 260–61, 328
conservation of species 17
ecosystem approach 12
EIAs 8–9
habitats, protection of 21 mining in see Area, mining in MSR, right to conduct 328–9 pollution, combating 23, 24–5
protection of 35
sustainability 11
Area, mining in 6, 8–9, 151–69, 389 commercial mining 152–3 compliance and enforcement 160 damage from mining 153–4
EIAs 159, 304–5
environmental emergencies, contingency plans and 161–2 environmental impacts from seabed mining 152–4
environmental management plans 165–8 environmental monitoring programmes 159–60
exploration, definition of 158 future developments 168–9 incremental approach to regulation 158 ISA regulations 156–60
legal framework of LOSC and 1994 Agreement 154–7
mineral deposits 152–3 pollution, control of 159–60 precautionary approach 157, 158–9, 167 prospecting, definition of 157 Recommendations For Guidance of Contractors 163–4, 304–5 remote operated vehicles 389 responsibility and liability 162–3 areas beyond national jurisdiction (ABNJ) environmental assessment see environmental assessment in ABNJ marine biodiversity see conservation/sustainable use of marine biodiversity in ABNJ large marine ecosystems see large marine ecosystems
MPAs see marine protected areas (MPAs) in ABNJ 272–90
ASEAN 415–16, 417, 423
Heritage Parks 416, 418–19 ballast water see International Convention on Ballast Water Management (2004)
Bangladesh v Myanmar 177
Barcelona Convention (1995) 277, 299, 348, 355
Basel Convention (1989) 92, 123
Beef Hormones 43
best environmental practices 38–9 Biodiversity Liaison Group 75 biological diversity, marine acidification of oceans 92–3 conservation 179–80 ABNJ see conservation/sustainable use of marine biodiversity in ABNJ LOSC, under 36
protection of 59
regional biodiversity regimes, ocean acidification and 444–6
Regional Seas programmes 352–6 see also Convention on Biological Diversity
1992 (CBD)
Brundtland Report 10–11
cetaceans, protection of see under whaling Chagos Marine Protected Area Arbitration 13, 18, 21
climate change 28–9
adaptation strategies 435 Arctic 200
climate change regime 436–8 objective of 437 regulating global warming 436 MSR, and 329–30
oceans 390
carbon sink, as 436, 437–8, 452 ocean acidification, and 431, 436, 451–2 see also ocean acidification
Regional Seas Programmes 358–9
significance of threat posed by 358, 390, 451
Climate Change Convention 1992 (UNFCCC)
29, 123, 330, 431–2 climate regime, objective of 437 climate system, definition of 437 common but differentiated responsibility 50
greenhouse gases 117, 453 land-based pollution, and 92
ocean acidification 437
promoting scientific data collection 330
coastal states
Arctic coastal states 364, 374 shipping, and see under Arctic shipping, regulating
Index 475

costal and port state jurisdiction 108–14
Arctic 364, 374
EEZ 109–10, 233–8
fishing 174
high seas 108–9
ports and internal waters 111–14 territorial sea 110–11
continental shelf, sovereign rights over 176–7 ELAs, conducting 179
extended continental shelf see extended continental shelf and marine environment juridical continental shelf 171 MSR, regulating 325–6 pollution, prevention of 178 species management and conservation in EEZ see under EEZ vessel-source pollution see vessel-source pollution
Comité Maritime International (CMI) 203 Commission for the Conservation of Antarctic Marine Living Resources 280–81, 395 objective 445
ocean acidification 445–6
Scientific Committee 446 Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf 175–7, 214
common but differentiated responsibility 34, 49–52 assistance to developing states 50, 51 customary international law, as 50–51 different substantive obligations 50 dual standards, creating 50 grace periods for developing states 50 IMO future rules, and 118
meaning 49
Conferences of the Parties 64–5 conservation/sustainable use of marine biodiversity in ABNJ 259–71 conservation measures under LOSC 263–4 contested areas 259–60 implementing agreement, proposal for 265–71 support for 268–71
marine genetic resources, legal regime applicable to 260–63 see also marine protected areas (MPAs) in ABNJ
conservation of species
biological diversity, conservation of 36 ecosystems, protecting rare and fragile 18, 178

EEZ, species conservation in see under EEZ endangered species, protecting habitat of 178 fishing, adverse impact on species 19 harvested species 13
high seas, species conservation in see under high seas LOSC 12–20
inadequate conservation provisions in LOSC 19–20
legal regime 36
marine environment, protecting 17–18 marine/living resources 13, 14–16 conservation under LOSC 36
FAO, and 62
international cooperation 52–3 meaning of 14
precautionary principle 41
sustainable development 47
trade rules, and 65
world fisheries in crisis 19
maximum sustainable yield 15
new and alien species, introduction of 18–19 pollution of marine environment, preventing see under marine pollution species associated with/dependent on harvested species 13–14, 15–16 species specific approach 36
zonal management approach 36
see also marine species, protecting continental shelf coastal states, rights of 170
conservation of species 17
extended continental shelf see extended continental shelf and marine environment mining on see continental shelf, seabed mining on MSR, in 326–7 settlement of disputes 333
sedentary species 179 continental shelf, seabed mining on 206–25
environmental management best agreed standards, use of 208 legal framework 208–9
risk assessments 208
establishing national compliance/enforcement agencies 219–22 compliance and enforcement 221–2 institutional implementation 219–21
Index 477

land-based pollution, and see under land-based pollution and marine environment LOSC see under LOSC
MSR, in see under marine scientific research (MSR) need for 74–5
prerequisite to marine environmental protection, as 52–3 promoting cooperation 74–6 regional cooperation 88–90
Regional Seas Arrangements see Regional Seas Arrangements
UNEP, and see UNEP
Copenhagen Accord (2009) 431–2 deep seabed, protecting marine environment of see under Area Deepwater Horizon 173, 191–2, 199, 201 due diligence, obligation of 38–40, 178–9 dumping see ocean dumping, international control of Earth Summit 342, 349, 358
EC Approval and Marketing of Biotech Products 43 Ecologically or Biologically Significant Marine Areas (EBSAs) 276, 284 ecosystems
Arctic marine ecosystems 363–4
conservation of species 18
continental shelf, on 179–80 Deep Sea Fisheries Guidelines 301–2 deep seabed ecosystem, damage from mining to 208 deep seabed habitats 63
ecosystem approach 11–12
CBD 11, 230, 255
CCAMLR 280
Fish Stocks Agreement, UN 240
precautionary principle, and 41 extended continental shelf 171–2
marine ecosystems 172
extremophiles 172
habitats, protection of 21
hydrothermal vents 172, 239
large marine ecosystems see large marine ecosystems MPAs sustaining high seas ecosystems 273 ocean acidification, impacts of 433–4 pollution 92–3
greenhouse gases 92
protecting from 18, 35
rare/fragile ecosystems, protection of 178 states’ obligations 394
scientific research into deep seabed ecosystems 63 vulnerable marine ecosystems 276, 301 EEZ (exclusive economic zone)
coastal and port state jurisdiction 109–10, 326 additional measures in special areas 109 Arctic coastal states 374–5 enforcement measures 110 environmental rules for international shipping, prescribing 109 fisheries 11
freedom of navigation 109, 463 historic origins of concept 229 long term sustainable marine resources, coastal states ensuring 393 MSR, in 326–7
geoengineering 462–3
settlement of disputes 333
nature of 109
‘no go’ areas 121
pollution laws and regulations, enforcement of 26, 27 protecting EEZ/oceans as shared asset 85–6 species management and conservation in 13–17, 233–8 allowable/total allowable catch 234, 235, 237 anadromous and catheducous fish stocks 236–7 coastal states’ rights 234 coastal states’ wide margin of discretion 234, 235
Fish Stocks Agreement, UN 236 general standards for stock management 234–5 high seas, and 238–9, 241 marine mammals/cetaceans 237–8 maximum sustainable yield 234–5, 237
origins of regime 233–3 particular categories of fish stocks, requirement for 235–6 shared, straddling and highly migratory fish stocks 236
environmental assessment in ABNJ 291–312 challenges to implementing 305 global initiatives to develop international law framework 305–11 EIA in Implementing Agreement, rationale for 307 Implementing Agreement, UNGA proposing 305–7 links between EIA elements and other parts of agreement 311 post-EIS decision-making 311 public notification and consultation 310–11 options for incorporating EIA elements: reporting 309–10 options for incorporating EIA elements: scoping 309 options for incorporating EIA elements: screening 308–9 global instruments 293–7
CBD 295–6
CMS 297
LOSC 293–4
UNEP goals and principles of EIA 294–5 international law framework for 292–8 decisions of international tribunals 298
global instruments 293–7 importance of EIA 292–3 practical difficulties with 296 regional frameworks for 299–300 Madrid Protocol to Antarctic Treaty 300 regional seas conventions 299–300 sectoral frameworks for 301–5 dep deep seabed mining sector 304–5 fisheries sector 301–2 shipping sector 302–4 environmental impact assessments (EIAs) 7–9 ABNJ, in see environmental assessment in ABNJ costal states’ obligation 178 customary law status of 298 definition 45
EU 92
practical difficulties with conducting 296 precautionary principle, and 45
purpose 45
significant harm likely, consequences of 294–5 UNEP Principles 294–5
due diligence approach 294 nature and content of EIAs 294 obligation to consult stakeholders 294 environmental treaty bodies 64–5 Espoo Convention (1991) 8 definition of EIAs 45 European Union (EU)
energy policy 201
European Framework Directives 91
legal network of indirect influence 91–2
Hong Kong Convention 120 marine biodiversity 264, 266, 268
offshore oil and gas activities 201–2, 203 accidental pollution, preventing 201–2, 204 shipping regulation 125–6 extended continental shelf and marine environment 170–89 claims for 396
costal states’ obligations to protect marine environment 178–80 due diligence obligation 178–9
EIAs 179
pollution prevention 178 costal states’ rights over 176–7 definition of continental margin 171 geopolitical constraints/legal uncertainties 330–31 large marine ecosystems, and 396 law of extended continental shelf 175–7 marine protected areas on extended continental shelf 180–88 international cooperation to establish marine protected area 184–6 limitations on coastal state’s right to refuse consent for MSR 186–8 marine scientific research (MSR), regulating 182 MPAs 180–82
preventing unjustifiable interference with high seas rights 180–84
unilateral coastal state measures 180–84 MSR, access problems for 330–31 risks to marine environment from activities 171–5 exploitation of resources 172–3 fishing activities 174–5 major pollution incidents 173 mineral deposits/exploitation 173–4
Exxon Valdez 366
Fish Stocks Agreement, UN (1995) aims 239, 240
CBD influencing 239–40
compatibility between high seas/EEZ measures 241
ecosystem approach 240–41
EIAs 301
implementing LOSC provisions 20, 240 marine species protection and conservation 240, 393–4
precautionary principle 10, 41, 240–41, 267
regional fisheries management organizations 394 parties joining 53, 63–4, 238, 241–2 role of 241–2
sustainable development 47
fishing
ecosystems, protecting 21
RFMOs see regional fisheries management organizations (RFMOs) world fisheries in crisis 19
flag states
jurisdiction 107–8, 170 enforcement and compliance 107 safety at sea, obligations to ensure 213 vessel-source pollution, and see under vessel-source pollution Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) 20 capacity-development programmes 70
Code of Conduct for Responsible Fisheries (1995) 41–2, 62, 64, 235
sustainable development 47
cooperation, promoting 76
Deep Sea Fisheries Guidelines 301–2
ecosystem approach 11, 41
Fisheries Committee 62, 70
Independent information, provision of 70 marine living resources, conservation of 62 MPAs, definition of 275
precautionary principle 41–2 regional fisheries treaties 62
soft law 67–8, 235
world fisheries, state of 19
Friends of the Earth International 72

Gabčíkovo-Nagymaros Project 40, 42, 46, 49, 298 gas and oil activities see offshore oil and gas activities generally accepted international rules and standards (GAIRS) 197, 374, 377–8, 380 Geneva Convention of the Continental Shelf (1958) 176 Geneva Conventions (1958) 3, 182 geoengineering and marine environment 140, 451–72
climate change 451–2
oceans as solution to 452 control of scientific research, marine engineering and 468–72 compliance with conditions 469 consent, withholding of 468–9 dispute resolution, geoengineering and 470–71 goengineering the marine environment 453–8 disposal of baled crop residues in deep ocean 457 enhancing ocean’s biological pump 456 enhancing solubility 457 macroalgal afforestation 457, 465 marine cloud brightening 458, 459, 465 ocean-based geoengineering 455–6 ocean fertilization 456–7 removing CO₂ from atmosphere (CDR) 454–5 solar radiation management (SRM) 455 weathering 457–8, 465–6 law of the sea, marine geoengineering and 462–71
EIAs 464–5
marine geoengineering, protection of environment and 463–8 pollution by dumping, marine geoengineering as 466–8 pollution, marine geoengineering as 465–6 precautionary principle 463–5
nature of 452
ocean fertilization see ocean fertilization Global Environmental Facility (GEF) 71 International Waters Portfolio 386 large marine ecosystems, and see under large marine ecosystems nature of 398
SCS Project see under marine protected areas (MPAs) in South China Sea (SCS) Global Ocean Commission 203–4
Global Partnership for Oceans 103 Global Programme of Action see under land-based pollution and marine environment greenhouse gases 28–9, 92, 431, 436, 453
increase in 453–4
Kyoto Protocol 117, 453
MARPOL 116, 117, 123
ocean acidification see ocean acidification Greenpeace 72, 73
habitats, protection of 20–22
activities damaging to marine habitats 20 deep seabed habitats 63 dangerous species 178
states’ obligations 394
pollution, protecting from 35, 178 Helsinki Convention (1992)
pollution 88–9
precautionary principle 40
high seas
coastal and port state jurisdiction 108–9 doctrine of necessity/maritime casualties 108 enforcement by port states against foreign ships 108–9 cooperation to conserve living resources, states’ duty of 393 freedoms of high seas 108, 264, 462 freedom of fishing 233–4, 238 freedom of marine scientific research 327, 462 limitations on 183–4, 462 unjustifiable interference with high seas rights, preventing 180–84 IUCN principles for governance 32–3
MPAs 180–84
MSR, right to conduct 325, 327, 328–9
protection of 35
species management and conservation 13, 15–17, 238–9 anadromous and catadromous fish stocks 236–7 Deep Sea Fisheries Guidelines 301–2 deep seabed species 239
ecosystem approach 240–41
EEZ, and 238–9, 241
hydrothermal vent organisms 239 marine genetic resources 239 maximum sustainable yields 238 non-sedentary species 179
precautionary approach 240–41
shared, straddling and highly migratory fish stocks 236 states’ wide margin of discretion in conservation measures 238 Hong Kong International Convention for the Safe and Environmentally Sound Recycling of Ships (2009) 120 hydrothermal vents 172, 239, 389
IMMS Code 213
information and advice
land-based pollution, and 102
NGOs providing 72–3
provision of independent advice 68–70 Integrated Coastal Zone Management 85
Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission (IOC) 330 inter/intra-generational equity 11, 46 internal waters 17, 111–12 discharge in 26
ocean disposals in 144–5
International Atomic Energy Agency 123 International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling 1946 (ICRW) 229, 243–4, 251 see also whaling
International Convention on Oil Pollution Preparedness, Response and Cooperation (OPRC)196
International Convention on Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS) 121–2, 364, 366 International Convention on the Prevention of Pollution from Ships 1972 see MARPOL Convention international cooperation see cooperation principle/international cooperation international economic organizations 64
International Energy Agency 190 international financial institutions 71 international institutions see actors/institutions for protection of marine environment International Labour Organization 123 International Law Association 197
GAIRS 377
International Law Commission pollution 23
sovereign rights 182
international marine environmental law, principles of 31–56 co-operation principle see co-operation principle common but differentiated responsibility see common but differentiated responsibility environmental protection principles in general 32–3 functions of principles 31–2 IUCN principles 32–3
legal framework 34–6
principal features of conservation under LOSC 36 principal features of Pt XII of LOSC 34–5 legal status of principles 33 no harm principle see no harm principle precautionary principle see precautionary principle sustainable development see sustainable development International Maritime Organization (IMO) arificial reefs 139
capacity-development programmes 70
climate change 29
conventions 180, 209, 212–13, 364 energy efficiency measures, new requirements on 116–17 environmental protection conventions 114–15, 366 anti-fouling systems 119
ballast water management 119
MARPOL see MARPOL Convention ship recycling 120
flag states 127
future rules, basis of common but differentiated responsibility 117 ‘no more favourable’ treatment principle 118
independent information, provision of 70 Instruments Implementation Code 127 jurisdictional rules, and 121–3 Particularly Sensitive Sea Areas (PSSAs) 122–3
SOLAS 121–2
Legal Committee 203, 204 mandate 366
Marine Environment Protection Committee 61–2 maritime safety 366
MPAs (Particularly Sensitive Sea Areas) 276
NGOs, and 72
offshore oil and gas activities 194–7
non-binding codes and guidelines 196–7
Polar Code see Polar Code ‘politicized’ discussions 106 pollution, and 27, 29 technical rules affecting pollution 105 treaties 61, 66–7
port states 128
sensitive areas, rules 184
soft law 67
vessel-source pollution see vessel-source pollution
International Oceanographic Commission, UNESCO 22 International Seabed Authority (ISA) compliance and enforcement 160
EIAs 63
environmental emergencies and contingency plans 161–2 future developments 168–9
Legal and Technical Commission 156, 159, 161 environmental management plans 165–8 inspections 160
recommendations for guidance of contractors 163–4, 168 reports on environmental monitoring programmes 159–60 mandate/rule-making 62–3, 66, 151–2, 155–60 monitoring role 63
MPAs (Areas of Particular Environmental Interest) 276, 300
MSR, carrying out 328
pollution, combating 23
precautionary approach 63, 152
responsibility and liability 162–3 role 151, 153, 155
scientific research 63
seabed mining 156–7 environmental protection powers 293 Mining Code 211–12
regulations on 157–60
International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) 72
MPAs, definition of 275 principles for high seas governance 32–3 Red List, threatened fish and invertebrates on 19 strengthening regional cooperation in ABNJ 395 World Conservation Congress 395 International Whaling Commission (IWC) 238, 243, 244–5 Intervention Convention (1969) 108 invasive aquatic species see International Convention on Ballast Water Management (2004) ITLOS 8
conservation of species 13, 16–17 duty to cooperate/international cooperation 12, 54–5, 58
precautionary principle 10
Johannesburg Plan of Implementation 89, 268, 343 maximum sustainable yield 234–5
MPAs 273
sustainable development 343
Kyoto Protocol 1997
common but differentiated responsibility 50
greenhouse gases 117, 437
ocean acidification 428
specific targets to reduce greenhouse gases 453 land-based pollution, marine environment and absorptive capacity of oceans, finite nature of 83–4 acidification of oceans 92–3
damage caused by land-based activities 83, 94–5 efficacy of international legal framework enforcement and compliance 99–102
information, role of 102 precautionary principle, importance of 101–2 soft law approach/global programme of action 95–9 states’ legal responsibility 95 enforcement and compliance 99–102
cost of compliance 100 prescriptive systems, weaknesses of 100–101 implementation deficit 101 inherent weaknesses in domestic regulation 99–100 pollution shift 100
Global Programme of Action 96–9 advantages/disadvantages of non-binding flexible approach 97–9 importance of 96
LOSC and land-based pollution 84–7 Manila Declaration (2011) 98 marine environment as a shared asset 85–6 nature of 96–7
ocean disposals in internal waters 144–5 rights and obligations of coastal states 85–6 states’ obligations to prevent land-based pollution 86–7 majority of marine pollution from land-based activities 81–4 pollutants negatively impacting marine environment, types of 8 Regional Seas Programmes 89–90, 351–2 requirement of cooperation 87–94
European Framework Directives 91
legal network of indirect influence 91–4 Mox Plant case 87–8
regional cooperation 88–90
Regional Seas Programmes 89–90
Land Reclamation by Singapore in and around the Straits of Johor (Malaysia v Singapore) 8, 43, 52, 54–5 large marine ecosystems (LMEs) 385–410 challenges in LME management 385 governance challenges 393–6 over-exploitation/inadequate management 388, 389, 390–92 ‘silto’ effect 396–8
capacity building for effective governance 396–9 dynamic management as alternative for LME/ocean governance 400 GEF standard approach 398 need for accurate and sustainable data input/interpretation skill-sets 405–8 ocean observations and monitoring of indicators 399 reviewing weight of evidence 401–5 strategic action programmes 398–9 translating observation results into adaptive management 399–400
definition 387–8
ecosystem-based approach management approach 386–7 GEF, new approach developed by 388, 398 governance challenges: transboundary management and ABNJ 393–6 ABNJ, management issues with 393–4 transboundary interactions 393 large marine ecosystems and services they provide 387–9 air pollution 389
mineral extraction 389
offshore oil fields 389
tourism 388–9
Large Marine Ecosystems Programme 343 management and ocean governance: root causes of problems 396–8 knowledge not shared effectively 397–8 ‘silto’ effect 396–7
problem of LME management – Tragedy of the Commons 390–92 conflicts and balancing interest 390–91 fishing 391
non-renewable resources 392 shipping 392
Index 483

customary law, as 34, 208 development, means of 6–7 dispute settlement 13
EEZ see EEZ (exclusive economic zone)
EIAs 7–9, 232, 293
ABNJ, in 293–4
enforcement and compliance 99
extended continental shelves 175 flag state jurisdiction see flag states framework nature 5, 19
habitats, protection of 21–2
high seas see high seas implementation agreements 6, 8–9, 151, 236 international cooperation 52–3, 58, 68–9, 88–9, 277
interpretation by courts and tribunals 6 legal framework 34–6, 154–5, 192–3, 211–12, 231–3 conserving living resource/biological diversity 36
principal features of Pt XII 34–5 marine biodiversity conservation measures 263–4
marine environment protection 3, 4–5, 208–9, 231–2, 263–4, 272–3, 293–4, 316–17
marine geoengineering, and 463–8 MSR, and 316–19
marine pollution
definition 465
land-based pollution, see under land-based pollution and marine environment prevention of 22–8, 35, 50, 52–3, 208, 211, 293–4, 317, 440, 466
vessel-source pollution see vessel-source pollution MSR see marine scientific research (MSR)
no harm principle 38
ocean acidification 440
offshore energy activities see offshore oil and gas activities principles for policy-making 7 coop-ration 12, 33
damage by pollution 7
ecosystem approach 11–12
EIAs 7–9
precautionary principle 9–10, 232 prevention, principle of 232 sustainability 11
regional seas, law of the seas and 340–41 superior to other marine treaties 4, 84 single-sector basis management, problems with 390

tourism 391–2
size 388
London (Dumping) Convention (1972) 4, 5, 132–3, 440–41
compliance 142–3
EIAs 302–4
focus of 134–5 interpretation of ocean dumping exceptions 138–40
liability and compensation issues 145
ocean acidification 440–41
ocean disposals in internal waters 144–5 ocean fertilization and geo-engineering activities 140–41, 303–4
guidance for 325
offshore oil and gas activities 195–6 permissive approach of 134, 135 prohibited wastes 134
scientific and technical assistance 143–4 London Protocol (1996) 132–3, 135–7, 440–41
achieving wide acceptance of 146
common but differentiated responsibility 50
compliance 141–3
dumping of platforms and vessels 140
EIAs 136, 139–40, 302–4
guidelines 136–7
interpretation of ocean dumping exceptions 138–40
liability and compensation issues 145
geoengineering: ocean fertilization see
ocean fertilization
ocean disposals in internal waters 144–5
offshore oil and gas activities 195–6 permits for dumping 136
precautionary principle 41, 132, 135–7, 440–41
‘reverse listing’ approach 135–6 scientific and technical assistance 143–4
LOSC 1982
adoption 84
aims 3
CBD, and 256–7
climate change 28–9
coastal and port state jurisdiction see under coastal states
common but differentiated responsibility 50 conservation/protect species see under marine species, protecting ‘constitution for the oceans’ as 4, 105, 229–30, 46

Rosemary Rayfuse - 9781781004777
Downloaded from PubFactory at 09/16/2023 05:28:35PM
via free access 484  Research handbook on international marine environmental law

territorial sea see territorial sea WHC, and 253–4

Mare Liberum doctrine 85 marine biodiversity see conservation and sustainable use of marine biodiversity in ABNJ marine environment, meaning of 35 marine environmental law see international marine environmental law, principles of marine environmental policy-making/legislation, principles for 6–12 co-operation 12
ecosystem approach 11–12
EIAs 7–8
polluter pays principle 10
precautionary principle 9–10
prevention of environmental harm principle 7
sustainable development 10–11

Marine Environmental Protection Committee (MEPC) 366, 367
marine genetic resources contestation over applicable legal regime 260–62 common heritage of mankind principle applying 261 freedom of the seas applying 261–2 hydrothermal vents 172, 239
legal regime applicable to 260–63
meaning 260, 261
species management and conservation 239

marine pollution 4, 5
adoption of rules and standards 23–5 damage by pollution 7
definition 22, 29, 317
ecosystems, protecting 18
enforcement of laws and regulations 25–8 land-based pollution, and see land-based pollution, marine environment and liability and compensation 28 marine geoengineering as 465–6 meaning 9
noise 22–2
Prestige disaster 27
prevention of 22–8, 35
conservation of species 18–19
international cooperation 53
reducing 23, 35
seabed activities, from 24–5 shipping, pollution from 24, 27, 61 sources of 23–5, 35

State responsibility 35 marine protected areas (MPAs) 180–88, 267–8 ABNJ, in see marine protected areas (MPAs) in ABNJ
CBD 180, 255–6
definition 275
extended continental shelf 180–82
high seas 180–84
international cooperation to establish marine protected area 184–6 limitations on coastal state’s right to refuse consent for MSR 186–8 meaning 180
preventing unjustifiable interference with high seas rights 180–84 South China Sea, in see marine protected areas (MPAs) in South China Sea (SCS) unilateral coastal state measures 180–84

marine protected areas (MPAs) in ABNJ 272–90 context 272–3
aim of establishing network of MPAs not met 273–4 MPAs as important tool for biodiversity conservation 273 definition of MPAs 275
extent of 272
few declared because of management challenge 394–5 interest in establishing 275–6 sectoral MPAs/area-based management tools 276 international provision for MPAs in ABNJ 286–8 MPAs under new LOSC implementing agreement 286–7 new binding instrument on marine biodiversity 286 relationship between LOSC IA and regional initiatives 288 regional initiatives 277–86 Mediterranean 277–9
North-East Atlantic 281–3
regional initiatives: challenges and lessons learnt 284–6
Sargasso Sea, initiative for governance of 283–4 Southern Ocean 279–81
regional initiatives: challenges and lessons learnt 284–6 ecological coherence 285–6 ensuring coordination and cooperation 285 lack of geographic coverage 284–5 leadership and vision 285 marine protected areas (MPAs) in South China Sea (SCS) 411–27 components for regional regime for MPAs in SCS 425–7 decision-making body 426–7 institutional arrangement for cooperation on MPAs 426 inventories of natural sites of conservation interest 426 list of MPAs of SCS importance 426 operational unit 426 regional framework as soft law text 425 regional monitoring programme for MPAs 426 specialized regional compliance mechanism 426 cooperative initiatives to establish regional networks of MPAs 418–20 ASEAN Heritage Parks 418–19
IOSEA network of sites of importance for marine turtles 419–20 nature of South China Sea 411 relevant regional commitments and cooperative initiatives 417–20 cooporative initiatives to establish regional networks of MPAs 418–20 regional commitments relating MPAs and networks of MPAs 417 SCS Project 420–24 initiatives for implementation of strategic action plan 423–4 specific MPAs-related outputs 420–23 SCS Project, specific MPAs-related outputs of 420–23 determination of targets for management/conservation of habitats 422 development of regional system of fisheries 422–2 establishing network of demonstration sites 421–2 establishing regionally prioritized sites for management intervention 421 status of regional cooperation relating to MPAs in SCS 413–24 relevant regional commitments and cooperative initiatives 417–20 relevant regional mechanisms 413–17 territorial/maritime disputes, obstacles to regional cooperation 412 threats to South China Sea 411–12 marine scientific research (MSR) 182, 313–36 appropriate scientific methods, use of 322–3 cooperation in scientific matters 318, 320–21, 328, 330, 334 environmentally responsible conduct of MSR 324–5 growth in MSR 314
legal regime for MSR in Pt XIII 319–31 general principles 321–5 marine zone-specific provisions 325–31 promotion, facilitation and international cooperation in MSR 319–20 scientific research installations and equipment 331 limitations on coastal state’s right to refuse consent for 186–8, 326–7 LOSC, conduct of MSR and 314, 315 peaceful purposes, research for 321, 327 potential for conflicts, increased 315, 322, 329 Argo Floats Programme 329–30, 331 relationship between Pt XII over Pt XIII 316–19 cooperation in scientific matters 318, 320–21
marine environment, protecting 317
MSR affecting marine environment 316, 322 MSR as information gathering activity 318, 319
precautionary approach 318
states’ right to conduct MSR 317–18, 320 responsibility and liability 331–3 alternative modes of legal accountability, devising 333 novel experiments 332
precautionary principle 332
settlement of disputes 333–4 compulsory settlement procedures 333 impact of disputes on MSR 334 technological innovations transforming MSR 314–15 marine species, protecting 229–58 development of legal rules and relevant issues 229–30 cross-sectoral and multi-faceted regime 230–31 environmental agreements and marine species protection 230 resource management, historical perspective of 229 zonal nature of law of the sea 229–30
FAO, and 62
Fish Stocks Agreement, impact of 236, 239–42
aims 239, 240
compatibility between high seas/EEZ measures 241
ecosystem approach 240–41
implementing LOSC provisions 20, 240
precautionary principle 10, 41, 240–41
regional fisheries organizations 238, 241–2
international cooperation 52–3, 241 LOSC regime 12–20, 231–9 constitutional framework 36, 231–3 EEZ, species management and conservation in 233–8 see also under EEZ (exclusive economic zone) endangered marine species 229–30 high seas, species management and conservation in 238–9 see also under high seas meaning of marine/living resources 14 marine environment, protecting 17–18
maximum sustainable yield 15, 234–5, 237, 238
total allowable catch 234, 235 multilateral environmental agreements 246–57 spatial approaches: habitat protection to global reach 252–7 species- and habitat-specific approaches 246–51
precautionary principle 41, 232 protection of cetaceans see under whaling spatial approaches: habitat protection to global reach 252–7
CBD 254–7
Ramsar Convention 252
World Heritage Convention (1972) 253–4 species- and habitat-specific approaches 246–51 international trade in endangered species 246–9 migratory species, protection of 249–51 Marine Strategy Framework 2008, EU 91–2, 97 marine turtles 419–20 Maritime Safety Committee (MSC) 366–7
market-based measures (MBMs) 118 MARPOL Convention (1973/78) 4, 5, 61, 105, 138–9, 366, 442 air emissions 115–18
general 115–16
greenhouse gas emissions 116–17 Arctic shipping 364 discharge rules 126
evidence-based environmental thresholds 449 marine pollution prevention and discharges (Annexes I–V) 115
ocean acidification 442
offshore oil and gas activities 194–5 pollutants, addressing 114–17 SOx emissions 116
Mediterranean (Madrid) Offshore Protocol 191–2 Millennium Development Goals (MDG) 89, 274 Minamata Convention on Mercury (opened for signature 2013) 93–4 mining, seabed Area, in see under Area continental shelf, on see continental shelf, seabed mining on EIs 8–9 environmental impacts from seabed mining 152–4 habitats, protection of 21
precautionary principle 10 regulations 9–10
see also International Seabed Authority Montreal Protocol 1987
common but differentiated responsibility 50 Mox Plant 8, 12, 42–2, 52, 54, 87–8, 298 mutual benefit principle 321 natural heritage, definition of 253
no harm principle 34, 37–40
customary law, reflecting 33, 37–8 fundamental principle in environmental protection, as 37–8 limits of principle 38–40 obligation of due diligence 38–40 best environmental practices, and 38–9 noise 22–2
non-governmental organizations (NGOs) oobserver status 72 provision of information and advice 72–3 rule development, and 71–3
North Atlantic Marine Mammal Commission (NAMMCO) 245 North East Atlantic Fisheries Commission (NEAFC) 75, 185, 282, 300 large marine ecosystems 395–6
MPAs 395
Noumea Convention (1986) 212
Nuclear Tests II 42
Nuclear Weapons, Advisory Opinion on Legality of Threat or Use of of 37, 295

ocean acidification 29, 358, 431–50, 451–2 biodiversity conservation regimes 443–4
CBD 443–5
regional biodiversity regimes 444–6 climate change, and 431–2 geoengineering proposals 435–6 oceans slowing global warming/absorbing carbon 431
weathering 457–8
international legal framework 436–46
biodiversity conservation regimes 443–46
climate change regime 436–8
marine pollution control regimes 439–43 other atmospheric pollution regimes 438–9
marine pollution control regimes 439–44
global programme of action 442–3 vessel-source pollution and ocean dumping regimes 440–42
MSR, and 329
nature of ocean acidification 431 process and impacts 432–6 chemical process 432–3 marine organisms and ecosystems, impacts on 433–4 policy responses: mitigating/adapting to ocean acidification 435–6 societies and economies, impacts on 434–5 UNFCCC Protocol on ocean acidification 446–9 amendments to UNFCCC/Kyoto Protocol on climate change 448–9 assessment of ocean acidification effects on national economies 448 global agreement on acceptable pH threshold/range 448 improving scientific knowledge on ocean acidification 448 ocean dumping, international control of 27, 132–47 achieving wide acceptance of London Protocol 146 black list 132
compliance, strengthening 141–3 definition of dumping 466 liability and compensation issues 145
London Convention, permissive approach of 134–5 ocean disposals in internal waters 144–5 ocean dumping permits 132, 133, 136 ocean fertilization, geo-engineering activities and 140–41, 303–4, 466–8 precautionary approach 132
Regional Seas programmes 356 technical and capacity development assistance, securing 143–4 volume of dredged materials 133 ocean fertilization 140–41, 303–4, 323–4, 452, 456–7
definition 460
definition of geoengineering 458–9 legitimate scientific research 460 permits 459, 460
requirements for acceptance/entry into force 461 reverse listing approach 460
Risk Assessment framework 460, 469 regulatory mandate confined to placement of matter 461 guidance for 325
marine pollution, as 465–6 dumping 140–41, 303–4, 466–8 unintended consequences of 457 OECD: polluter pays principle 10
offshore oil and gas activities 190–205
accidental pollution regimes, strengthening 191–2 importance of oil and gas resources 190 international legal framework 192–7
CBD 193–4
IMO 194–7
London Convention 195–6
LOSC 192–3
MARPOL 194–5
non-binding codes and guidelines 196–7
oil pollution preparedness, response, cooperation 196
offshore oil and gas activities 198–200 pollution from 190–91 regional level 198–202
488  Research handbook on international marine environmental law

Arctic 200–201
European Union 201–2, 204
North-East Atlantic 198–200
Regional Seas Programmes 198 towards an international convention 202–4
Regional Seas Programmes 358
oil spills
  accidental pollution regimes, strengthening 191–2
Arctic, in 371–2
Deepwater Horizon 173, 191–2, 199, 201
Exxon Valdez 366
oil pollution, prevention, preparedness, response 366
Regional Seas Programmes 357 origin, principle of 232 OSPAR Convention (1998) Arctic Ocean, covering 201 best environmental practice 39 Code of Conduct for Responsible Marine Research 324–5
extent of 281
international cooperation 54
large marine ecosystems 395–6 marine biodiversity, protecting 281–2 MPAs 282–3, 286, 395–6
ABNJ, in 300
OSPAR Commission 73, 75, 185, 299–300
EIAs in ABNJ 299–300
North-East Atlantic Environment Strategy 199 preventing acute oil pollution from offshore drilling 199–200
precautionary principle 40–41
purpose 198

Pacific Ocean/Islands, mining in see continental shelf, seabed mining on Particularly Sensitive Sea Areas (PSSAs)
122–3, 284
Polar Code 364, 365–73 Arctic coastal state environmental jurisdiction, and 375–82
  assessment 382–3
  Polar Code as enabling factor 375–8
  Polar Code as restrictive factor 379–82
  assessment 372–3
  background to 365–7
environmental protection or pollution prevention 370–72
accidental oil spills, preventing 371–2 operational discharges 371 objectives 368

safety measures 368–70 adoption of operational limitations 368 categories of vessels 368–9 structure 367–8 risk- and goal-based 368, 369–70, 382 scope 368
polar environments, protecting see Antarctic; Arctic; Polar Code policy-making/legislation see marine environmental policy-making/legislation, principles for polluter pays principle 10
pollution
  land-based see land-based pollution and the marine environment marine see marine pollution oil and gas see offshore oil and gas activities
vessel-source see vessel-source pollution
port states
  discretion to impose access conditions/other requirements 112–13 enforcement measures/reasonableness criteria 112, 113–14, 126 national rules on foreign ships, imposing 111–12
port state control 128
port state jurisdiction 108–14 ports and internal waters, pollution in 111–12
vessel-source pollution see vessel-source pollution
see also coastal and port state jurisdiction
  precautionary principle 9–10, 34, 40–45 context of marine environmental protection, in 40–42
controlling environmental risks, and 44 customary law character of 33, 43, 463–4 difficulties in practical application 43–4
definition 9, 40
economic interests, and 43 EIAs, and 45
geoengineering 463–5
interpreting international law, and 44–5 inter-temporality of, 43–4 land-based pollution, combating 101–2 limits of 42–5
London Protocol 41, 132, 135–7
marine biodiversity, and 266–7
MSR, and 318, 332
new dimension of international environmental law, as 40 normative force of 44–5
ocean acidification 436
risk, nature of 44
prevention of environmental harm principle 7, 232
ocean acidification 436
Pulp Mills on the River Uruguay 44, 52, 178–9, 298

Ramsar Convention 1971
marine species, protecting 230, 252 regional fisheries management organizations (RFMOs) 20, 63–4 cooperaion and coordination 75 fish stocks closed fishing areas and seasons 229 limiting destructive fishing practices 184 management of 238
safeguarding future management of stocks 229 MPAs (vulnerable marine ecosystems) 276, 301–2 powers 66
UN Fish Stocks Agreement requirements 241–2 determining ‘real interest’ in fisheries 242 regional seas organizations 124–5 Regional Seas Programme 1974 (RSP) 4, 20, 61, 69–70, 184, 285, 339–62 action plans and conventions 89–90, 95–6, 347–8, 349 adapting/incorporating new issues 343–4
aims 198, 339
assessment for future of 261–2 black-listed substances 90 destructive fishing methods 174–5 development of development of concept of ‘regional seas’ 340–45 evolution of Regional Seas Programme 342 law of the sea and regional seas 340–41 Stockholm, Regional Seas Programme after 342–3 UNEP’s vision and strategy for Regional Seas 343–5 EIAs in ABNJ 299–300
establishment 339 global strategic directions, adoption of 343–5 key issues, focus on 343 land-based pollution 89–90 specific protocols on 90
Large Marine Ecosystems Programme 343
offshore oil and gas activities 198 structure of 345–51
financing 351
individual regional seas programmes 345–8 institutional structure 349–50 legal frameworks for RSPs, variations in 348–9 processes to establish RSP 347–8 thematic activities 351–60 biodiversity and protected areas 352–6 climate change 358–9
dumping at sea 356
land-based sources of pollution and activities 351–2 offshore activities 358 oil spill prevention, preparedness and response 357 Responsibilities and Obligations of States Sponsoring Persons (Advisory Opinion) 51, 152, 162, 163, 167, 211–12, 298, 317, 464 Reykjavik Declaration on Responsible Fisheries in the Marine Ecosystem (2001) 47 Rio+20 Summit 84, 103, 343
maximum sustainable yield 235
UNEP, strengthening 343, 350
World Summit see World Summit on Sustainable Development Rio Conference on Sustainable Development (2012) 71 Rio Declaration (1992) 342
common but differentiated responsibility 49–50
precautionary principle 40, 101, 158–9
prevention of environmental harm principle 37, 178, 295
sustainable development 47
risk 44
Rome Declaration on the Code of Conduct on Responsible Fisheries (1999) 47 Rotterdam Convention (1998) 92 ships/shipping Arctic shipping see Arctic shipping, regulating EIAs in shipping sector 302–4
dumping 302–3
ocean fertilization 303–4
IMO, and see International Maritime Organization (IMO) MARPOL, and see MARPOL Convention (1973/78) pollution from see vessel-source pollution
ship recycling 120
sic utere tuo ut alienum non laedas see no harm principle
soft law
FAO 67–8, 235
IMO 67
land-based sources of marine pollution, addressing 95–6
South China Sea see marine protected areas
(MPAs) in South China Sea (SCS) Southern Bluefin Tuna cases 13, 18, 31, 44–5, 55, 232–3
species conservation see conservation of species; marine species, protecting species specific approach 36
Stockholm Conference (1972) 3, 57, 154, 342, 343
Stockholm Convention (2001) 92
Stockholm Declaration 1972
international cooperation 52, 342 prevention of environmental harm 7, 37, 294–5, 342
sustainable development concept 46–7
sustainable development 10–11, 46–9 Commission on Sustainable Development 75 concept of 33–4
marine environmental protection, in 46–7
definition 10–11, 46
High Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development 75, 77
inter/intra-generational equity 11, 46 justiciability of concept 48–9 limits of concept 47–9
NGOs, and 71–2
post-MDG Sustainable Development Goals 89, 274
Regional Sea Programme see Regional Sea Programme
Rio+20 84, 103
substantive elements of 48 uncertainty of contents of concept 47–8
UN sustainable development process 59–60 World Summit see World Summit on Sustainable Development
Swordfish dispute 74 technical and financial assistance programmes 70–71
territorial sea
coastal and port state jurisdiction 110–11 enforcement of rules 111 regulating ships in passage 111
conservation of species 17
MSR, in 326
goengineering 462–3
right of innocent passage 110–11 MSR prejudicial to 326 territorial sovereignty of coastal state 110 Torrey Canyon 192
‘Tragedy of the Commons’, Hardin’s 390 Trail Smelter arbitration 37, 438
UNCED (1992) 10, 239–40
UNCLOS III 3–4
UNEP 60
artificial reefs 139 climate change issues, addressing 358 EIA principles see under environmental impact assessments (EIAs) establishment of 342
institutional structure 349–50 governance 350
subsidiary body of UN 349–50
marine environment protection 60–61, 89 international cooperation, promoting 342 UNEP as principal environmental protection body 339, 350
MEAs, developing 339
Regional Sea Programme see Regional Seas Programme
SCS Project see under marine protected areas (MPAs) in South China Sea (SCS) strengthening UNEP 343, 350
UNESCO
IOC 330
World Heritage Sites 286
United Nations (UN) Conference on Environment and Development see UNCED (1992) Conference on the Human Environment see
Stockholm Conference (1972)
Conference on the Law of the Sea, Third see UNCLOS III
Convention on the Law of the Sea, UN see
LOSC
Economic Commission for Europe, UN see UNECE
Environment Programme, UN see UNEP
Fish Stocks Agreement see Fish Stocks Agreement, UN (1995)
Food and Agriculture Organization see Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) Framework Convention on Climate Change, UN see Climate Change Convention 1992 (UNFCCC) General Assembly (UNGA) adoption of resolutions relating to LOS/marine environment 6, 59, 76 annual reports 76 cooperation and coordination, promoting 74–6 EIAs in ABNJ 305–7
fishing methods, destructive 174–5
marine biodiversity 60, 265, 305–7 monitoring developments in marine protection 59
ocean acidification 431
sustainable development 59
system-wide coordination of law and policy 75–7 technical and financial assistance, provision of 70–71 Group of Experts on Scientific Aspects of Marine Pollution 22 marine environment protection, role in 58–61 implementing agreements 59 new rules, developing 59 sustainable development process 59–60 specialized agencies 61–2 UN-Oceans 71, 76–7
United States v. Kun Yun Jh 86–7 vessel-source pollution 105–31, 440–41 IMO Conventions: MARPOL 114–17 air emissions: general 115–16 air emissions: greenhouse gas emissions 116–17 air emissions: SOx emissions 116 IMO Conventions: other 119–20
anti-fouling systems 119
ballast water management 119
ship recycling 120
implementation and enforcement 126–30
coastal states 129–30
flag states 127
general 126
port states 128
jurisdictional rules and technical rules governing 105–6 jurisdictional scheme 106–14 coastal and port state jurisdiction see under coastal states flag state jurisdiction 107–8
general 106–7
marine pollution prevention and discharges (Annexes I–V) 115
ocean acidification 440–41
prescription outside IMO 123–6
EU 125–6
global organizations 123 regional organizations 124–6 regional seas organizations 124–5 prescriptive standards 114–26
general 114
IMO and jurisdictional rules 121–3
market-based measures (MBMs) 118
MARPOL 115–17
other IMO Conventions 119–20
prescription outside IMO 123–6 regulated at international level 105 Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties 1969 (VCLT) 241, 266
Virginia G 16
Volga 16
Water Framework 2000, EU 91–2 whaling 229
EEZ, in 237–8
protection of cetaceans 242–5 disputes over IWC approach 244–5 early conventions on whaling 242–3 ICRW 243–4
increasing efforts to protect whales 243 moratorium on whaling 243 NAMMCO, establishment of 245 regional arrangements 245 sanctuaries 278–9
'scientific whaling' exemption 244
whale sanctuaries 243 Whaling in the Antarctic 244
World Bank 386
World Commission on Environment and Development (WCED) sustainable development, definition of 46, 48 World Heritage Convention 1972 (WHC) 253–4 LOSC, and 253–4
natural heritage, definition of 253 protection of habitats of threatened species 253 World Meteorological Organization 329
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>World Summit on Sustainable Development</th>
<th>World Trade Organization (WTO)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Implementation Plan see Johannesburg Plan of Implementation</td>
<td>trade rules impacting protection of marine environment 65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MPAs 273</td>
<td>World Wildlife Fund 72, 73</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>sustainable development 180</td>
<td>zonal management approach 36</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>