Contents

List of contributors vii
Preface xv

1 Applied geography: relevance and approaches
   Robert Stimson and Kingsley E. Haynes 1

2 A geographic perspective on demographic evolution in Europe: the CEG participation in the ESPON 1.1.4 project
   Diogo de Abreu 17

3 A national transport policy: the case of Pakistan
   Roger R. Stough 34

4 Spatial modelling, GIS and network analysis for improving the sustainability of transporting aggregates in the UK
   Chengchao Zuo, Mark Birkin, Graham Clarke, Fiona McEvoy and Andrew Bloodworth 55

5 SMILE: an applied spatial micro-simulation model for Ireland
   Karyn Morrissey, Cathal O’Donoghue, Graham Clarke, Dimitris Ballas and Stephen Hynes 79

6 Using GIS and spatial modelling to support school network planning in Estonia
   Edgar Sepp and Jüri Roosaare 95

7 Spatial optimization: expanding emergency services to address regional growth and development
   Alan T. Murray, Daoqin Tong and Tony H. Grubesic 109

8 Urban growth in the Brisbane–South East Queensland region and its implications for emergency services provision: a Geographic Information Systems-based approach
   Jonathan Corcoran, Robert Stimson, Prem Chhetri, David Rohde and Angela Higginson 123

9 Geographical dimensions of federal investment in small business development
   Kingsley E. Haynes, Haifeng Qian and Sidney C. Turner 144

10 Geographical modelling, public policy and informing the ‘store wars’ sovereignty debate in Australia
    Robert G.V. Baker and Stephen N. Wood 160
11 Defending a territory: automobile dealership customer and site analysis
   John Lombard

12 West Midlands (UK) regional planning (1999–2012), functioning economic geography and the E3I belt: coping with uncomfortable truths
   Michael Taylor and John R. Bryson

13 Technopoles: governance and networking
   Haddad Ismail

14 Economics of space: estimating the economic significance of a NASA testing facility
   Michael C. Carroll and Will M. Burns

15 Using input–output analysis and GIS to assess economic, fiscal and developmental impacts of toll roads in Dallas: a 40-year perspective
   Bernard L. Weinstein and Terry L. Clower

16 Helping community groups to address urban planning issues in a deprived gipsy neighbourhood: geographical experiences from Perpignan in a post-riot context
   David Giband

17 Designing, implementing, monitoring and evaluating an urban community development programme in Portugal
   Maria Lucinda Fonseca and Alina Esteves

18 A local master plan for biospheric conservation and development: concept, methodology and application
   Eliahu Stern

19 Assessing responses to National Weather Service warnings: the case of a tornado
   Burrell E. Montz

20 Managing environmental hazards of outdoor falls among the elderly population of Hong Kong
   Poh-Chin Lau, Wing-Cheung Wong, Ming-Houng Chan, Chien-Tat Low and Martin Wong

21 Hydropower in Chilean Patagonia: evaluating socio-economic conditions for resettlement and/or compensation of rural inhabitants
   Frederico Arenas and Pablo Osses McIntyre

Index