
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Foreword Mike Wright	xv
1 Introduction Cyrine Ben-Hafaïedh and Thomas M. Cooney	1
PART I LEARNING FROM THEORY AND PRACTICE
2 Entrepreneurial teams research in movement Cyrine Ben-Hafaïedh	11
3 Urban legends or sage guidance: a review of common advice about entrepreneurial teams Phillip H. Kim and Howard E. Aldrich	45
PART II DEVELOPING ENTREPRENEURIAL TEAMS
4 Entrepreneurial team formation: the role of the family Giovanna Campopiano, Tommaso Minola and Lucio Cassia	73
5 Entrepreneurs' perspectives on the structuring phase of the entrepreneurial team L. Martin Cloutier, Sandrine Cueille and Gilles Recasens	96
6 Which deep-level diversity compositions of new venture teams lead to success or failure? Stephanie Schoss, René Mauer and Malte Brettel	121
7 How owner-manager team size influences the potential economic contribution of owner-managed businesses Jonathan Levie and Johan P. de Borst	144
8 Dispositional antecedents of shared leadership emergent states on entrepreneurial teams Wencang Zhou and Donald Vredenburg	164

PART III CONTEXTUALIZING ENTREPRENEURIAL TEAMS

9	Family entrepreneurial teams Allan Discua Cruz, Elias Hadjielias and Carole Howorth	187
10	Te Ohu Umanga Māori : temporality and intent in the Māori entrepreneurial team Mānuka Hēnare, Billie Lythberg, Amber Nicholson and Christine Woods	208
11	Ethnic diversity in entrepreneurial teams and the role of culture shock on performance Jean-François Lalonde	231
12	Women empowerment through Government Loaned Entrepreneurship Teams (GLETs) in Kenya Mary Wanjiru Kinoti, Moses Kibe Kihiko and Thomas M. Cooney	252
13	Entrepreneurial teams in social entrepreneurship: when team heterogeneity facilitates organizational hybridity Frédéric Dufays and Benjamin Huybrechts	273
	Index	289