Index

4C Model of Collective Leadership 86, 91–2

abductive case study approach 28
Abdul Hamid, Haji Mohamed Fauzy (‘Fauzy’) 173–7, 181, 182–6, 187, 189 ability (interpersonal trust dimension) 179
Adit 175–6, 181, 183, 184–5, 186
AirAsia 174
Andrade, D. M. 195
Aronoff, C. E. 163–4
Astrachan, J. H. 78
Aurobindo Pharma Ltd 86, 87
authoritative parenting 11, 216–17, 218, 222, 223–4, 226, 228–9, 233–4 Autoplas Systems 120
axial coding 155, 158
baby-boomer generation 22, 234
Balanced Scorecard system 110–11
‘bantom’ role 157, 161–2
Barach, J. A. 151, 152
Baumrind, D. 166
Bayliner Boats 173
benevolence (interpersonal trust dimension) 179
Berrone, P. 165
‘black box’ perspective 214
Bodapati, Shiv 76–8, 80–81, 89
bond with community 157, 160, 162, 166
‘born with expectations’ (second order theme) 32, 33, 34, 37, 42
Boston Consulting Group 101
BRAILE (Braile Biomédica) 192–3, 194, 198–207
Braile, Dr Domingo 192, 193, 199, 200–203, 204, 205–7
Braile, Giovani 193, 202, 203, 204
Braile, Maria Cecilia Braga 199, 202, 203
Braile, Sofia 202, 203, 204
Brazilian case study
conceptual framework 194–8
discussion 205–8
firm history and growth 199–205
interviews 198–9
limitations 209
methodology 198–9
mini case study 192–3
study overview 10, 193–4
Brigham, K. H. 165
‘building leadership familiarity’
(second order theme) 33, 36, 41, 44–5
‘business first’ approaches 219
business planning 111–12, 113
business socialization 27–8, 42–3
Cabrera-Suárez, K. 151, 152
Cadieux, L. 151, 152, 166
calculated trust 179, 186, 188–9
case method 85
Cater, J. J. 151, 153, 165
CBU (Complete Built Up) car trading 174 ‘cells’ 140
‘chaotic flexibility’ 231, 232
Cheng, J. C. 52, 151, 152
Chrisman, J. J. 28–9, 78, 164
Chua, J. H. 28–9, 78
Cine Colombia 49–50
Circle K 174
Circumplex Model 231–3, 234
cohesion continuity (4C Collective Leadership Model) 91 collective approaches 27, 81
Next generation leaders for transgenerational family enterprises

collective leadership conceptual framework for 86, 90–92
cultural dimension of 90 effectiveness of 76, 85
evolution of 77–8, 86, 87
and family cohesion 87–8, 93–4
and family conflict 88–90
and family values 90–91, 92
and governance structures 79–80, 81, 83, 85, 86–7, 90–91, 93
and joint decision-making 77, 80–81, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89 management team studies 82–3
and role of first generation leaders 86–7, 90
and succession 76–82, 88
sustaining 85
transition timeline 81–2
variants of 83–4
see also shared leadership ‘collectivism’ 90, 92–3
Colli, A. 120
Colombian case study
and Communities of Practice 52–6, 57–67
and entrepreneurial learning 52, 53–6, 57, 66
and family involvement 51–3
interviews 57–65
and management leadership 51, 54, 55, 57–8, 64–6
methodology 57
mini case study 49–51
pathways for involvement 57–65, 70–75
and responsible ownership 52, 54–6, 57, 65–7
study overview 5–6
and succession 52, 54–5, 57–8, 63, 64–6, 67
Colombo, M. D. 104–5
‘comfort zones’ 89
commitment 164
community 148, 149, 160, 162, 163–7 ‘company-school’ 201, 205–6 competence-based trust 179, 186–7, 188–9 conflict resolution (4C Collective Leadership Model) 91 ‘connected cohesion’ 231, 232
consistency (interpersonal trust dimension) 179 consultative leadership 84
content analysis 29, 32
contextual leadership 84, 88
continuity 151, 164
‘conversational process’ 223, 233
CoPs (Communities of Practice) 52–6, 57–67
Corbett, A.C. 151, 152
Corbin, J. 155
corporate entrepreneurship 22, 23, 117
Craig, J. B. 142
create effectively (4C Collective Leadership Model) 91
‘creating a unique role identity’ (second order theme) 33, 35, 38–9, 42–3
CSR (corporate social responsibility) 54, 77, 164
cultivate constructively (4C Collective Leadership Model) 92 Cunha, Rafael Braile 193, 199, 202, 203, 204, 207 decision-making 178, 180, 182, 184, 185, 188, 189
De Cruif, Keesjan 126, 128
‘demandingness’ 216–17, 220, 234
Denis, J. L. 82
Denison, D. 132
developmental movements 196
Diemen-Matten 127, 136
Diemen-Contour 126–9, 134–44
‘disengaged cohesion’ 231, 232 diversification 16–17, 177–8, 179–80, 183–4, 186–7, 188, 189
Donnington Park Circuit (UK) 175
DRB-HICOM 174
Dutch case study
characteristics 135–7
discussion 142–4
and entrepreneurial orientation 133–4, 144
findings 138–42
interviews 134–5, 139–41
limitations 143–4
methodology 134
mini case study 126–9
practical research implications 14–15
study overview 8, 129–30
theoretical foundation 130–34
dyadic approaches 27
Dyer, W. G. 133, 143
dynamic leadership 84

Eisenhardt, K.M. 181
EL (entrepreneurial learning) 52, 53–6, 57, 66, 152, 194
emotional involvement 102, 114, 118–19 ‘enmeshed cohesion’ 231, 232 entrepreneurial leadership development of 194, 206
and entrepreneurial orientation 25, 27–8, 32
and succession 24–8, 29, 32, 33, 35–6, 40–42, 43–4, 45–6 transition model 32, 33, 41–2, 45
entrepreneurial orientation
Dutch case study 133–4, 144
and entrepreneurial characteristics 26
and entrepreneurial leadership 25, 27–8, 32
Italian case study 102, 106, 117–18, 119–20
practicing 39–40, 43, 46 entrepreneurial self-concept dimension 32, 33, 34–5, 38–40, 42–3, 45–6
Ernst & Young 67
ERP (enterprise resource planning) systems 22
‘Exco’ (MOFAZ Group) 184
exploratory case study approach 57
Exploring Transgenerational Entrepreneurship: The Role of Resources and Capabilities (book) 2 external social capital 196
‘familial sub–narrative’ 198
‘familiness’ 52, 94, 195
‘family-as-investor’ mindset 119
Family Business Board 89–90
Family Business Network 54
‘family business work–lifestyle introduction’ (second order theme) 32, 33, 34, 37–8, 42 family cohesion 87–8, 93–4, 212–14, 215–16, 231, 235 family complexity 221, 223–30
Family Council 89–90
‘family-first’ approaches 220 family influence 177
family involvement literature 51
family legacy 24, 45, 65, 67, 76, 189, 197, 199, 206–7, 209, 218–19 family norms 195–6
family socialization 27–8
‘family to family’ exchange 12
‘family to non-family’ exchange 12 family wealth 220–21, 223–30 ‘family’ variable measurement 215
‘father to son’ transition 7, 12
‘fault lines’ 89
FBs (family businesses) 50–52, 54–5, 57, 58, 60, 61–7
FEO (family entrepreneurial orientation) 134, 144
Fernandes, Tony 174
Fernández-Moya, M. 165, 166
Fernandez, P. 120
Fletcher, D. 106
flexibility 231–2, 235
‘flexible flexibility’ 231, 232
Folker, C. 104
Forehand, R. 220
formal order administration methods 111
fraternal relationships 234
Frick, P. J. 219
FSC (family social capital) 193, 194–6, 205–8
Future Fibres 100–101, 120
GE Capital 63
‘gender discrimination’ 229, 235
Generation X 234
generational system 196–7, 206, 208–9
Gersick, K. E. 133
Gimeno, A. 106
Gioia single-case analysis method 198
Glaser, B. G. 180
Goto, T. 150, 151, 155
governance structures 79–80, 81, 83, 85, 86–7, 90–91, 93
Next generation leaders for transgenerational family enterprises

'gradual involvement in the family business' (second order theme) 33, 34, 38, 42–3
'greenfield' investments 111
Greiner, L. 207
Grzybovski, D. 193–4
Habbershon, T. G. 194
Halal Subway 174–5, 181, 185, 186
Hall, A. 105, 106, 131
Hamilton, E. 52, 53–4, 62, 64–5, 70–75, 206
Handler, W. C. 151, 153
'hierarchical-controlling parents' 216, 217 Hitt, M. A. 9, 105, 106, 129, 131 horizontal movements 196, 207
Hu, S. Y. 131

'identities-in-practice' 54, 55, 57, 59–60, 61–2, 63, 65, 66, 67
IFERA (International Family Enterprise Research Academy) 54, 66
IMC (Instituto de Moléstias Cardiovasculares) 200
Indian case study
conceptual framework for collective leadership 86, 90–92 findings/discussion 86–90 implications 93–4
interviews 85
methodology 85–6
mini case study 76–8
study overview 6
succession planning 79–82
individual approaches 27
'individual-level influence/values' 157, 158, 161–3, 166
'initiation of role transition' (second order theme) 33, 35–6, 40–41, 44–5 innovation 100, 106, 111–13, 180–81, 192, 199, 207, 208–9, 219
'Inovare Transcatheter Valve' 201
institutional trust 16, 179
'intangible resources' 206
integrative insights 6–7, 9, 11–12
integrity (interpersonal trust dimension) 179

'intergenerational' perspectives 52, 54, 57–8, 105, 144 internal social capital 196
interpersonal trust 16, 177, 179, 182, 185–9
'interpreneurship' 26, 42
interpretivist case study approach 28
interviews
Brazilian case study 198–9
Colombian case study 57–65
Dutch case study 134–5, 139–41
Indian case study 85
Italian case study 109–11, 112–13, 114–17
Japanese case study 151, 154–5, 156–7, 158, 159, 160–61, 163
Malaysian case study 181–6, 187
Spanish case study 221–2
Swedish case study 29, 32, 34–41, 44
ISO/TS certification 128, 139, 142, 143, 144

'isolated islands' 195
Italian case study
and emotional involvement 118–19
and entrepreneurial orientation 102, 106, 117–18, 119–20
evidence of transgenerational professionalization 110–13 external challenges 116–17
and family business structure 102–3, 108–9, 114–15
future research 120–21
internal growth 116–17
interviews 109–11, 112–13, 114–17
limitations 120
methodology 109–10
mini case study 99–101
organizational structure of firm 106–8, 114–15
ownership/management overlap 115–16
practical research implications 15
study overview 8, 101–2
theoretical background 102–6
transgenerational learning 113–14
transgenerational professionalization framework 113–20

Japanese case study
data collection/analysis 154–7
Index

discussion 163–7
findings 156–7, 158–63
interviews 151, 155, 158, 160–61 163, 165
limitations 166–7
literature review 152–4
longevity of Japanese family businesses 150–51
methodology 154–5
mini case study 147–50
practical research implications 14–15
study overview 3, 8–9
JCI (Johnsons Control Incorporated) 50, 51
joint decision-making 77, 80–81, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89
Junior, Walter Sternieri 193, 199, 202, 203
Justis, R. T. 151, 153, 165

Khanin, D. 164
knowledge-based trust 179
knowledge transfer 26, 131, 197–8
see also transgenerational learning
Koironen, M. 132, 165
Kotchick, B. A. 220
Kotey, B. 104
KPRT group 76–8, 79–82, 84, 85–8, 89–90, 91

LaChapelle, L. K. 182
‘laissez faire parenting’ 217
Lambrecht, J. 26, 42, 54–5
Lamothe, L. 82
Langley, A. 82
Le Breton-Miller, I. 26, 151, 153, 164–7
‘leader-member’ exchange 12–13
‘leadership capability’ 2–3, 5–7, 12–13, 16
leadership demands 7, 13 ‘legitimate peripheral participation’ 62–3
Lin, S. H. 131
Litz, R. A. 133
‘long-term orientation’ 9, 132, 148, 153, 157, 161, 164, 165
Lópe, Aníbal 64
Lópe, Martin 65

Maccoby, E. E. 216
‘maintaining mutual trust (with local community) through socially responsible practices’ 149-50, 156, 159–60, 162, 164–5, 167
major themes overview 2–12
Malaysian case study
case selection 180–81
discussion 187–8
findings 182–7
future research 188–9
interviews 181–6, 187
limitations 188
literature review 178–80
methodology 180–81
mini case study 173–7
practical research implications 16
study overview 10, 177–8
‘managerialization’ 106, 110
marital relationships 234
Marques, P. 164
Martin, J. A. 216
Martínez, J. I. 142
‘Marwari’ communities 90
Matthias 21–3, 46
‘meaning’ 53
Mejía, Ernesto 58–9, 60
Mejía, María Fernanda 58–9, 60
mentoring 152, 153, 154
Metal Inc. 212
Mifume, Eric 199
Miguel, Carlos 49–51, 67
‘milestones’ 24, 25–6, 28, 42, 136, 175
Millennial generation 234
Miller, D. 151, 153, 164–7
ML (management leadership) 51, 54, 55, 57–8, 64–6
MOFAZ Group 173–7, 180–88, 189
Mohamed Fauzy, Mohamed Fairuz 175
Mohamed Fauzy, Falysha 176
Mohamed Fauzy, Mohamed Farriz 176, 177, 181, 182, 184, 186
Mohamed Fauzy, Mohamed Ferhan 174, 186
Montoya, Carlos Alberto 58, 63
Montoya, Don Francisco 58, 59, 60, 61, 63
Montoya, Ligia 61
motivation
for decision-making 180, 185–6, 187, 189
for finding a place for the family 180, 185, 186, 188
for venture creation 178, 184, 188
Motta, P. R. 197
Motwani, J. 164
MT (management team) 127, 128
Muethel, M. 179
Mulitplex Río Cauca 49–50
Murugappa Group 86, 88
Naldi, L. 165
Nason, R. S. 179–80
Nestlé 173
‘network ties’ 195, 205, 208
non-family senior manager role 150, 157, 158, 161–2, 163, 166
Nordqvist, M. 105, 106, 131, 179–80, 194
nuclear family model 234, 235
OEM (original equipment manufacturers) market 127, 128, 139, 142
OES (original equipment suppliers) market 127
Ommens, Annelies 134, 137
Ommens, Bianca 126, 137
Ommens, Henk 127
Ommens, Jan 126–9, 134, 136–7, 138–42, 143–4
Ommens, Rene 128, 137
‘on demand’ training 112
open coding 155, 158
‘open innovation’ 201, 205–6
openness (interpersonal trust dimension) 176, 179, 182
Ortenzi, Carlo 109
‘out of the box’ thinking 22–3
Pacheco, Claudia 62–3
Pacheco, Don Carlos 59, 60–61, 62–3
Pacheco, Eduardo 59, 60–61, 63
Parada, M. J. 106, 133, 166
parenting authoritarian 216–17, 218, 222, 223–4, 226, 228–9, 233–4 authoritative 11, 216–17, 218, 222, 223–4, 226, 228–9, 233–4
and family business literature 215
and family cohesion 212–14, 215–16, 231–3, 235
and family complexity 221, 223–30 and family wealth 220–21, 223–30
and flexibility 231–2, 235
uninvolved 216–17, 220, 222
‘Partnership to Develop Shareholders and Entrepreneurial Families’ program 192, 202
‘patient capital’ attitudes 66
patriarchal family model 234
Peitl, David 199
Persico Automotive (division) 99, 100, 106, 109, 110–11
Persico Engineering (division) 99–100, 106, 109, 112
Persico Marine (division) 100, 106, 109, 111, 117
Persico Rotomoulding (division) 99–100, 106, 109, 111, 112
Persico SpA 99–101, 102, 106–20
Persico, Alessandra 100, 107, 108–10, 112, 113
Persico, Angiolino 107, 108
Persico, Claudia 100, 107, 108–10, 112, 113–14, 117
Persico, Marcello 100, 101, 107, 108–10, 112–13, 114–15, 117
personal based trust 179
Petigrew, T. F. 180
portfolio entrepreneurship 179
practical research implications 12–17
practices of social communities 53 ‘practicing an entrepreneurial orientation’ (second order theme) 33, 35, 39–40, 42–3 primary socialization 27–8 production planning methods 111, 115
professionalization
challenges to family businesses 130–32, 142, 144
and debt management 192, 203, 205
and family values 129, 138–9, 142
and firm restructuring 202–3, 205
and innovation 192, 199, 207
literature on 104–6
major themes overview 7–9
and organizational transformation 130–31, 142–3
practical research implications 15–16
of second generation family
and succession 101, 103, 105, 110, 113, 115, 121, 202–4
and technical capacity of next generation 202, 206
transgenerational 101–2, 104–6, 110–21
quality control systems 111
R&D (Research and Development) 106, 202, 206
Ramesh, K.P. 76–8, 79–82, 86–7, 88, 90
Ramesh, Kumar 76–8, 80–81, 89
Ramesh, Ravi 76–8, 80–81, 89
Rao, A. S. 164
‘regenerative capability’ 119
reinforcing capacity of structure 9
relational capital 196
‘respect’ 77–8, 127, 138, 141, 149, 156, 158–9, 164–5, 182, 183, 224, 227 ‘responsiveness’ 216–17, 220, 234 retirement 54, 62–3, 65, 80, 81, 173, 176, 223, 226, 228 ‘return on investment’ approach 214
‘rigid flexibility’ 231, 232
RO (responsible ownership) 52, 54–6, 57, 65–7
Rodrigues, Marcelo 199, 205
Rokeach, M. 132, 163
Rose, M. 120
Sáenz, Carolina 61
Sáenz, Don Antonio 61, 67
Sardeshmukh, S.R. 151, 152
secondary socialization 27–8, 43
‘Sedekah’ 177
See, James 213, 214
See, Maria 213

See, Mrs 212–14
See, Rita 213
self-regulation 216, 217, 219
Senna, Ayrton 175
‘separated cohesion’ 231, 232
shared leadership 7, 13, 82, 84, 92, 109
see also collective leadership
Sharma, P. 28–9, 78, 164, 197–8, 206, 215
Shelton, K. K. 219
‘Sindhi’ communities 90
situational leadership 84
SMEs (small-and medium-sized enterprises) 147, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 163, 164 social relations 178
socialization 27–8, 32–4, 37–8, 42–3, 45 ‘societal influence/values’ 157, 158, 162–3
socio-emotional wealth 165
Sorenson, R. L. 132
Souza, E. C. L. 197
Spanish case study
conclusions 230–34
family wealth/complexity 220–21, 223–30
interviews 221–2
methodology 221–2
mini case study 212–14
parenting styles 216–20, 222–30, 232–5
study overview 10–11
speed of decision-making 184–5, 189
Steier, L. 132, 178, 179, 197
STEP (Successful Transgenerational Entrepreneurship Practices)
project 1–2, 57, 101–2, 109, 120–21, 143, 221
Sternieri, Valéria Braile 202, 203, 206
Stewart, A. 9, 105, 106, 129, 131
Strauss, A. 155, 180
strong ties 195, 205, 208
‘structured flexibility’ 231, 232
Subway 174–5, 181, 185, 186
succession
see also continuity
and collective leadership 76–82, 88
and Communities of Practice 52, 54–5, 57–8, 63, 64–6, 67
and entrepreneurial leadership 24–8, 29, 32, 33, 35–6, 40–42, 43–4, 45–6
and entrepreneurial learning 52, 54–5, 66
and entrepreneurial self-concept 32, 33, 34–5, 38–40, 42–3, 45–6
and family business literature 152–4, 215
and family interest in business 193, 204, 207
and importance of family values 163–6 leadership succession literature 23–4, 25–7, 45, 46 lessons learned from previous generations 148–50, 158–9, 161
and longevity of family businesses 150–53
and primogeniture 148
and professionalization 101, 103, 105, 110, 113, 115, 121, 202–4
and socialization 27–8, 32–4, 37–8, 42–3, 45
steps of leadership succession 25–7 and transgenerational entrepreneurship/learning 194, 205–9 transmitting values 155–63, 166
Sundaramurthy, C. 132
‘Supreme Council’ (MOFAZ Group) 176–7, 184, 185
Swedish case study
data collection/analysis 29–32
discussion 41–5
and entrepreneurial leadership 24–5, 29, 32, 33, 35–6, 40–42, 43–4, 45–6 entrepreneurial self-concept dimension 32, 33, 34–5, 38–40, 42–3, 45–6
findings 32, 37–41
first-order data 32, 33
future research 45
and independent entrepreneurship 21–2, 23
interviews 29, 32, 34–41, 44
limitations 44
mini case study 21–3
practical research implications 12
problem statement 23–5
research methodology 28–41
second order themes 32, 33–41, 42–4 socialization dimension 32–4, 37–8, 42–3, 45
study overview 5
theoretical background 25–8
switching positions 21
systemic theory 196
Tamura family 147, 150, 161, 162
Tamura Sake Brewery 147–50, 154–5, 157, 160, 162, 163, 166–7
Tamura, Hanjuro 147–50, 155, 158–62, 163–6
Tàpies, J. 165, 166
TE (transgenerational entrepreneurship) defining 1, 194
and entrepreneurial value creation 129, 133
and family social capital 194, 205–9 process of 197–8
and professionalization 104–6, 110–21
and STEP project 1–2, 57, 101–2, 109, 120–21, 143, 221
and trust 177–8
‘teaching hospitals’ 201
technology transfer 197 ‘ties’ 195, 201–2, 205, 208
see also bond with community
TL (transgenerational learning) 113–14, 193–4, 196–7, 205–9 ‘tone at the top’ values 13
transgenerational potential 129–30, 133–4, 138, 141–2
transition timeline 81–2
‘treating employees well and with respect’ 156, 158–9, 164 trigger events 26
trust allocation of 24
and collective leadership 78, 85, 89
competence-based 179, 186–7, 188–9
development of 177, 178, 179, 182–3, 187–8
and diversification decisions 177–8, 179–80, 183–4, 186, 189
and emotional involvement 118
Index

and family values 127–8, 138, 156, 159–60, 164–5
forms of 178–9, 188
institutional 16, 179
interpersonal 16, 177, 179, 182, 185–9
and mode of new venture 186–7, 189
and motivation for decision-making 180, 185–6, 187, 189
as a resource 16
and speed of decision-making 184–5, 188, 189
trusting oneself 36, 41, 44
with local community 149, 156, 157, 159–60, 162, 164, 165, 167 Uhlaner, L. 54–5
uninvolved parenting 216–17, 220, 222
unpredictable movements 196, 207 values
as business guiding principles 127, 128–9, 130, 138, 140, 141–4, 155–61, 163–5 and business values 132–3
and collective leadership 90–91, 92
defining 132
importance of 163–6
major themes overview 7–9
practical research implications 13–15
and professionalization 129, 138–9, 142
and socialization 42
and succession 131, 139–41, 144
and transgenerational potential 129–30, 133–4, 138, 141–2 transmission of 130, 139–41, 144, 155–63, 166
and trust 127–8, 138
Van Dalen, Maarten 126, 128, 134, 137, 139–40
Van Diemen, Johan 127, 136
vendor rating systems 111
venture creation 173, 174–5, 178, 179–80, 181, 184–7, 189
Verdi, Luiza Braile 202, 203, 204
Verdi, Patricia Braile 192–3, 199, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206–7
vertical movements 194, 196, 208
Viladás, H. 166
Ward, J. L. 151, 153, 163–4, 165, 166, 167
weak ties 195, 205, 208
Wootton, J. 219
World Academic Research Forum (IFERA, 2005) 54
Yin, R. K. 57, 155
Zahra, S. A. 119
Zellweger, T. M. 165, 179–80, 194
Zerbini, Professor Euryclides 200