Index

adaptation to climate change in agrarian economies 164–5, 169, 171, 173–4 assessment
analysis of methods 112–15
analysis of uncertainty 109–15 mainstreaming 101–2, 116
phasing and timing 102–3, 109–10, 116 policy-orientated approaches 101, 116 problems with classic approach to 99–101 baselines and additionality for 105–6 challenges to assessment 114–15, 117 climatic change over time 110 methodological 104–9, 116
prioritizing options 110
and responses 55
uncertainty 8, 100–101, 116–17
in climate-resilient cities 143, 145, 153–6, 158–60 and climate risk 53–4
constraints and barriers 57–8
creating environment for
community-based cooperative resource management 66
incentives and property rights 65–6
information 64–5
infrastructure 67–8
migration 68–9
spatial and industrial policy 66–7
structural transformation 69–70
discounting 106–7
economic development as best form of 3 ‘entry points’ for action 7, 9 equity and distributional effects 107–8 evidence on options
early action to address long-term risks 134–5 early adaptation studies 128–9 early decisions with long lifetime 132–4
early low-regret options 103, 129–32
no-regret options 103, 113–14, 135, 137 practical implementation issues 135–7 exogenous trends affecting location-based inequality 59–60
urbanization 60–61
implications of pursuing climate-resilient development 9 of spatial development patterns 17 increased demand for 4
initiatives commonly associated with 54 and insurance instruments 62, 184–5, 188–9, 192, 194, 196–9 integrated with development policy 9 proactive approach to 5
limitations of economic literature 1
and migration 8–9, 47, 68–9, 204, 206, 215–16, 218 move towards climate-resilient development 2–3, 9 objectives of 104–5
priority areas requiring 5, 7 responses autonomous 53
and challenges 55
designing 7
and NPV 6
transformational 8
scale and transferability 108–9
The economics of climate-resilient development

in situ 5, 8, 54, 56, 60, 68, 71, 204 strategies
  current, as overly static 8
design of efficient 59
fostering 70–71
of pursuit of economic growth 55–7
transformational 5, 8–9, 54, 71
types of interventions 125–8, 136
view of, as climate-resilient development in developing countries 53
see also adaptive capacity
adaptive capacity building 61–4, 70–71, 128, 164 effects of provision of infrastructure 67
geographical isolation as constraint on 58–9, 68
lack, as consequence of sub-optimal adaptation 2
low, of poor people 20, 33, 37, 55
afforestation and agroforestry 166, 169
African Risk Capacity (ARC) 186, 195–6
age
  avenues for further research 178
  climate change
direct impact on development through 4
  as highly sensitive to 4
  impacts on poverty 34–7, 47, 55, 164
  optimism for reducing adverse impacts of 164–5
  and structural shifts 4–5
climate smart options 108, 130–131, 136
dependence on 207, 209
experimentation for adaptation 57
gender issue 176–7
importance of interactions 177–8 information for adaptation 64–5
intervention options
  adoption of adaptive new varieties 168
afforestation and agroforestry 166
conservation agriculture 166–7, 171, 174
diversification 168
effectiveness 175–6
ground cover/mulch 167
heterogeneous success of 177
reduced or eliminated tillage 167
soil conservation investment 165–6
synergies 168–9
water harvesting 168
low development in economies 165
and migration 216, 218
moving towards green growth 169–78
as potential mechanism linking climate change and economic performance 18–19
Andhra Pradesh 34
Bangladesh 38–9, 125, 129–30, 211
Botswana 90–1, 93–7
Burkina Faso 36, 90–91, 93, 95, 209
cash transfer programmes 45, 47, 64, 130
children
  effect of improvements in property rights 66
  impact of reduction income and food intake 207–8
  vulnerable to indirect impacts through health and education 34, 40, 45, 47, 57
  vulnerability to health shocks 42–3, 145, 151, 186
cholera 19, 42, 60
cities
  climate-related hazards
drought 147
  floods and storms 146
  heat 145
  urban hazards 144–5
developing resilient 3C model 152–4, 160
  compact urban growth 153–5
  connected infrastructure 154–6
  coordinated governance 154, 156–7
  market failure 151–2
  policy tools for 157–9
Index

population growth phenomenon 143–4
urban vulnerability 147–51
climate change
and conflict 20–27
and conventional development planning 5–6 distributional patterns of 107–8
impacts on poverty 33–4
agriculture and ecosystems 34–7, 47, 55, 164
health 34, 42–4, 47
natural hazards 34, 37–42, 47
and institutions 20–27
links with economic development 3–5, 15 links with poverty reduction 15 low-income countries as most affected by 1, 9
in lower-productivity locations 59–60 potential mechanisms linking with economic performance 18–20 and private actors 53–4, 64, 71 role of, in economic development direct effects 16–20
indirect mechanisms 20–27
as societal challenge of 21st century 1 and uncertainty 7–8
see also adaptation to climate change; adaptive capacity climate-resilient development achieving 44–7
in agrarian economies
difficulties 165, 177
focus on 164
interactions between initiatives 177–8
intervention options 165–9
move to green growth 169–77
need for further research 178
assessing options
analysis of uncertainty in appraisal 109–17 methodological aspects of economic of adaptation 104–9, 116 policy relevance and adaptation assessment 99–104, 116 challenges to building
development trends 59–61
marginalization 57–9
poverty and vulnerability to climate risk 55–7 responses to 61–70
ensuring 5, 7–8
and insurance
benefits of 187–90, 197–8
current application of 190–196, 198–9
drawbacks to 197–8
forecasting future impacts of climate change on 197–8 for managing climate risks 184–6 links between climate and development 3–5 migration as tool for developing alternative adaptation options 215
helping people make good choices 215–16
managing economy-wide effects 217–18
negative and positive economic effects 214–15 move from adaptation to 2–3 nature of 1–2
prioritizing interventions evidence on promising options 128–35 implementation issues 135–7
types of interventions 125–8, 136
setting priorities for 6 transformational change 8–9
climate risk
acceptable levels of 104–5
adaptation interventions 126–37
affecting migration
climate effects transmitted through conflict 208 climate effects transmitted via income 207–8, 212
conditioning factors 208–9
reducing, in destination region 217–18 risk of complete income failure 214 risk of expropriation 213 risk of forced migration 216
The economics of climate-resilient development

cities facing 143–52, 155–9 decision tools 113–17
and insurance 184–99
interdependencies in 110
iterative management 103, 109, 111–17
of lock in 126, 133
maladaptation by locking in 101
migration as effective response to 205, 218 see also risk, coping with Colombia 27, 41, 192
community-based cooperative resource management 66
community schemes 57, 63, 66, 156, 167, 171, 191, 213
conflict
cclimate, as catalyst of 21
cclimate effects transmitted through 208 and climate shocks 25
geographic factors affecting 20–21
of importance to development outcomes 15
and incentives 25
and inequalities 24
less developed countries more prone to 22
and migration 25–6, 47, 69, 208, 210, 215–16
opportunity costs of engaging in 27 role of climate change in 22–4, 26 significantly hampering economic development 22
connected infrastructure 155–7, 160
credit, access to
building adaptive capacity 70
cconcern of economic development 3 cconsumption smoothing through 218 cfarmers 84
as instrument for building adaptive capacity 61–2 poorer households lacking 57 provision of information, improving 65 through microcredit institutions 207 and transportation costs 216
crops 16, 35, 56, 65, 69, 71, 130, 166–7 decision making
ingetration of adaptation into 102 robust 111–12, 114–15, 117, 134 support tools comparison 112–15
under uncertainty 68, 109–12, 133 defensive flexibility’ 56–7, 71 Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) 82–9, 92, 96–7 diarrhoea 42
discounting
as methodological aspect of economics of adaptation 106–7, 116 trade-off between early actions due to 132–3 disease environments
and extractive vs. inclusive institutions 21–2 and health impacts of climate change 42–4, 46
as potential mechanism linking climate change and economic performance 19 urban areas as 60, 145–7, 151 distributional effects 107–8
drought 20, 34, 40–41, 46, 58, 147, 195–6, 211
economic activity in cities 149–50 economic development and climate change agriculture and labour productivity 18–19
conflict 20–27
disease environments and population dynamics 19 frequency/intensity of extreme weather events 19–20
geography 16–17
institutional development 20–26
links with 3–5, 15
poverty and vulnerability to shocks 20
temperature and rainfall fluctuations 18 involving accumulation of risks 70–71
and migration 206
and structural transformation 67, 69–70 supporting productive capacity of poor for 169 economic effect of migration 212–14, 217–18 economic performance, potential mechanisms linking with climate change 18–20 ecosystems 34–7, 47
education
and improved property rights 66
as infrastructure category 81 and insurance penetration 191
as core concern of economic development 3
and migration 213–14
in move towards green growth 173–4 spending, in sub-Saharan Africa 87–8, 94, 97 vulnerability to direct impacts through 40, 45 women’s access to 57–8, 64
equity
challenge of, in transition to green growth 175–6
gender 176–7
as methodological aspect of economics of adaptation 107–8 Ethiopia 36, 40, 46–7, 82–5, 87, 90–91, 93, 95–7, 102, 105–6, 112, 125, 149, 165–6 experimentation, aversion to 57 extreme weather events
adaptation as reactive in response to 71 affecting urban areas 144–5, 148–9, 151
as hindering human capital accumulation 26
and insurance 185, 190, 196
as potential mechanism linking climate change and economic performance 19–20
flooding
city strategies 155–7
coastal cities exposed to 5, 148, 218
costs arising from 133–4, 144–5, 150, 152
damage resulting from hurricanes 146, 149
early low-regret options 129
economic effects of 209 effects on productivity 207 and ‘environmental refugees’ 206 factors influencing building vulnerability to 149 high benefit to cost ratio 105, 129, 132
impacts on poverty 37–41
information on 65
initiatives that risk locking in vulnerability 46, 56 insurance schemes 63, 186, 195, 197 lack of suitable risk modelling tools 191 method of increasing resilience to 166 pluvial 146, 149–50
policy for 41, 135
and population growth 184
protection action plans 117, 126
residual risks 198
risk management 67, 112–13
and sealed surfaces of urban landscape 143 as short-term climate shock 218 suitability for risk financing 189 uninsurability 189
as urban hazard 16–17, 19, 60, 146
genre 176–7
geography
as direct effect of climate on economic development 16–17, 26 importance in choice of economic policy 24 improving access to isolated markets 61, 67 as indirect effect of climate on economic development 20–21, 26 insurance preferences 192, 194 isolation as constraint on adaptive capacity 68
location of cities 148
and marginalization 57–9, 70
in socio-political environment 21–2 and water resources 84–6, 108 green growth, move towards
The economics of climate-resilient development

challenges of tri-fold goals 170–171, 178 complementary policies 174–5 education and extension services 173–4 equity and inclusion 175–6 financial considerations and limitations 171–2
gender 176–7
institutions and their functionality 173
scaling up 169–70, 178
ground cover/mulch 167
Guatemala 38, 40

health
climate change impacts on poverty 34, 42–4, 47
harsh environment affecting 19 impact of drought 34, 40, 147 impact of urban heat 145
impacts of motorization 152
shocks 34, 40, 42, 46
threat posed by large-scale population movements 25
healthcare
access to 46, 57–8
and coordinated governance 156–7
infrastructure 81, 84
heat see temperature
Honduras 37–9, 185
human capital
accumulation
hindering 26
impact of diseases on 19
avoiding forced migration 216 developing economy benefiting from increased 214 droughts affecting 34
indirect mechanism of climate change on institutional development 26
international transfer of 213 investments 22
in kind programmes 63
incentives
creating environment for adaptation 65–6, 71
indirect mechanism of climate change on institutional development 24–5 for migration 213, 216
inclusion, in move towards green growth 175–6 industrial policy
creating environment for adaptation 66–7
as means of fostering structural change 70 inequalities
gender 58
indirect mechanism of climate change on institutional development 22, 24, 26
location-based 59–60
information
and coordinated governance 154, 156–7
creating environment for adaptation 64–5, 71
for decision-making 108, 111, 113–14
distortion of 68
ex ante and ex post 128–9
focus on value of 135
increased migration due to 212–13
as policy instrument for developing resilient cities 157 provision
for capacity building 127–8, 137
for good migration choices 215–16, 218
by insurers 192, 194, 197
as role for government 53–4, 63, 71, 159
risk reduction stemming from 195
as soft measure 131–2
infrastructure
and access to markets 36, 45
basic, provision of political and geographical affecting 58
as role for government 54, 70–71
city
ability to accommodate migrants 217 affecting ability to recover from extreme events 158
as characteristic increasing vulnerability to climate-related hazards 148–9 connected 154–7, 160
cost of damages to 150, 152 facing shortage of well-planned 144 factor influencing social vulnerability 150
funding of 158–9
LVC for financing large projects 158 networks 143, 147
potential to increase risk of damages 143
and sprawl 152, 155
transport 145, 149, 156
creating environment for adaptation 67–8, 71
damage, due to extreme weather 19, 26, 38–9, 185 decisions building resilience into 109, 126–7 everly, with long lifetime 132–3 in developing countries 7, 20, 38
economic justification of 197
financial developing countries needing to progress potential for 198 insurance for countries with low 186 food 40
health 42–4, 81, 84
incorporating into climate resilience 9 intensity gaps barriers to closing 89–94 categories and indicators 81 countries with highest investment needs 96–7 methods of calculating 80–82
types of 82–9
use in quantifying potential for investment 79–80 methodological problem in quantitative analysis of 79 need for investment in improved 67 in poor areas 55, 58 pros and cons to rebuilding economic 209
transport 36, 45, 58, 67, 78, 81–2, 86, 145, 213, 216
in urban areas 7, 60 ‘urgent’ projects 78
institutional development geographic factors 20–21
how ‘good’ institutions evolve 21–2 and human capital 26
incentives 24–5
inequalities 24
potential role of climate change 22–4, 26 institutions access to markets, depending on 36
challenge of, in transition to green growth 173
effective for delivering integrated policy programmes 154, 156–7 for planning, financing and implementing investments 94, 97 efficient, for migration 215 financial improved access to 45 protection of savings 41
improving quality of, for migration 216 insurance and climate-resilient development 184–6
current application of 190–196
economic justification of 187–90
infrastructure category and indicators 81
as instrument for building adaptive capacity 62–3 predicting future impacts of climate change on 197–8 principles for harnessing risk reduction potential of 197 risk transfer limitations 198
options 129–30
schemes 191–2
role in increasing capacity to reduce 198 role of recent innovations in 198–9
schemes
government funding of 63
innovative 195–6
natural disaster risk financing 194
pairings 174
rarity, in developing countries 7 trade-offs 197, 199
use of social safety nets as 63–4
investment
analysis of infrastructure 78–9
methods used 79–82
climate-resilient 79
infrastructure intensity gaps barriers to closing 89–94 countries with large populations 82–4 hydropower 84–6
paved road density 86–7
priorities driven by national income 87–9 share of land equipped for irrigation 84 synthesis of results 94–7
water resources and physical potential 84

labour productivity
effect of high temperatures 43, 69, 207
as potential mechanism linking climate change and economic performance 4, 18–19 and productive capital intensity 82–3 and reduction in income and food intake 207–8
location-based inequality 59–60
LVC (Land Value Capture) 158

mainstreaming adaptation 101–2, 116 malaria 19, 42–3
marginalization 55, 58–9, 70
Mauritius 90–1, 93–7
Mexico 41, 192, 195, 214
migration
as adaptation option 47
climate risk effects
conditioning factors 208–9
transmitted through conflict 208 transmitted via income 207–8
creating environment for adaptation 68–9
economic effect of internal migration 212–13 international migration 213–14
empirical evidence
climate effects hindering migration 210–211 climate effects promoting migration 209–10 historical migration movements 211–12 forms of 205–6
indirect mechanism of climate change on institutional development 25–6
motivation for 204–5
policy intervention for 218
as tool for climate-resilient development
developing alternative adaptation options 215
helping people make good choices 215–16
managing economy-wide effects 217–18
negative and positive consequences 214–15
as transformational adaptation response 8–9
mulch/ground cover 167
Mumbai 38–9, 41, 151

natural hazards
climate change impacts on poverty 34, 37–42, 47
and lock-in of spatial development patterns 17
Nigeria 82–3, 88–93, 95–7
Pakistan 40, 211
people
helping to make good migration choices 215–16
and urban vulnerability 150–151, 158
planning
as adaptation intervention 126–7
for climate 45–6, 103, 127 compulsory contingency 196
development 5, 7, 17, 67, 105, 155
eyear, for major risks 134–6
infrastructure 156
integration of adaptation into 103
land-use 41, 133
urban 77–81, 84, 133, 155
as urban policy instrument 157–8 policy-orientated approaches to
assessment 101, 116
population dynamics 19
portfolio analysis 111–12, 114–15, 117
poverty
adaptive capacity of 61–4, 70–71
agricultural policy interventions 170, 172, 175–7 alleviation
achieving climate-resilient
development 44–7
as societal challenge of 21st century 1
as tenet of climate-resilient
development 3
as challenge to climate risk 55–7
in cities 144, 147, 151
as determinant of vulnerability 54, 70 as direct effect of climate change on economic development 20
impacts
agricultural and ecosystems 34–7, 47, 55, 164
climate change 33–4
health 34, 42–4, 47
natural hazards 34, 37–42, 47
labour immobility related to 213, 216 periods of rapid growth leading to increase in relative 71
property rights 65–6, 71, 173, 175 rainfall fluctuations
as direct effect of climate on
economic development 18
and diversification 168
and early low-regret adaptation
options 129–30
in lower-productivity locations 59
risk, coping with challenges
development trends 59–61
marginalization 58–9, 70
poverty and vulnerability to
climate risk 55–7, 70
considerations for policy makers 53 mitigation, in agriculture 166–9 responses
building adaptive capacity 62–4, 70–71
creating environment for
adaptation 64–71
roles of private actors and government 53–4
and two forms of adaptation 54
see also climate risk
safety nets
provision of 46–7
reliance on informal 185
social
helping mitigate impact of disasters 45
as important response to climate change 71
as instrument for building
adaptive capacity 63–4
use by agricultural workers 218 scale of adaptation implementation 108–9
scaling up of green growth projects 169–70
shocks
climate
adoption of soil conservation structures 165–6
affecting economic growth 19–20
areas where most pernicious effects occur 58
effects across rich and poor
countries 26–7
impacts on conflict 24–5, 208
and informal neighbourhood
schemes 57
international migration caused by 9
migration in response to 69, 209–10 people working in agricultural sector 218
women more affected by 58, 72 ‘defensive flexibility’ to cope with 71 and financial instruments 62
food supply 45
health 34, 40, 42, 46
income 22–4, 62, 72
and insurance 62–3
and migration 68–9
and poverty 34
rainfall 18, 23, 58
resilience to 36
short-run 56–7
temperature 18, 23
urban residents’ ability to cope with vulnerability to
children 42
as direct effect of climate on
economic development 20
indirect effects of climate change relevant to 27
poor households 41
weather 22–3, 40, 46–7, 208
soil conservation investment 165–6
South Africa 87–91, 93–7
spatial policy 66–7
storms
building’s vulnerability to 149, 151
costs arising from 152
direct costs from 150
impacts on poverty 39
locations vulnerable to 148 reconstruction costs from 133 strong negative effect for agricultural productivity 20
as urban hazard 144, 146
structural transformation 54, 69–70
stunted growth 42–3
sub-Saharan Africa study see
investment

temperature
affecting labour productivity 43, 69, 207
agriculture affected by 35, 69, 166, 168, 208–9
city infrastructure affecting 143, 153, 155
as direct effect of climate on
economic development 18
effect on migration 210
effect on mortality 209
extreme 37, 43, 208–9
and index-based insurance 194–5
shocks 18, 23
and transmission of malaria 42–3
as urban hazard 60, 144–5, 148–9
tillage, reduced or eliminated 167
transferability of benefits and costs 108–9, 116, 133–4, 136
Uganda 36, 90–91, 93, 95, 172
uncertainty
associated with migration 69
as critical challenge for adaptation 100 decision-making under 109–10, 116–17, 133, 136
analysis of assessment methods 112–15
methods for 111–12
forms of climate 100–101
future-orientated studies requiring greater consideration of 127 no wait-and-see approach 7–8 planning accompanied by 46, 103, 126
urban growth
compact 153–5, 160
costs of poorly managed 151–2 harnessing benefits of 152–3
urban hazards 144–5
urban resilience, policy tools for 157–9
urban vulnerability
defining 147–8
economic activity 149–50
infrastructure 148–9
location 148, 152
people 150–151, 158
poverty as determinant of 151
urbanization
as challenge to climate risk 1, 60–61, 67
costs, when unplanned or poorly managed 144, 151
and disease environments 19
placing strain on scarce resources 69, 147
Vietnam 38–9, 112, 212–13
vulnerability
to climate risk 55–7
defining 147–8
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>233</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>locking in 56, 65 see also investment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of poor people 37–40, 55–7, 66</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>poverty as determinant of 54–5, 70</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to shocks 20, 27</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>urban 147–51</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>water harvesting 168</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>women</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>barriers to non-farm employment 69</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cash transfer programmes 64</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>discrimination against 72</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>moving towards green growth 176–7</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>opportunities and well-being 57–8</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>