This book was supported by a grant from the British Academy for the Humanities and Social Sciences on The Governance and Implementation of Sustainable Development Goal 13 (Climate Change), which financed the work of the editors and the production of Chapters 1, 4 and 6. We also acknowledge the Grantham Foundation for the Protection of the Environment, and the UK Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) through its support for the Centre for Climate Change Economics and Policy (CCCEP).

The authors of Chapter 8 received financial support from the Research Council of Norway under the project Strategic Challenges in International Climate and Energy Policy (CICEP). Joana Setzer (Chapter 9) is supported through a British Academy postdoctoral fellowship.

Our broader work on climate change legislation has for many years benefitted from a close interaction with legislators and their staff from across the world. Many of them are members of the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) and/or the Global Legislators Organisation (GLOBE International). More recently we have collaborated closely with the Sabin Center for Climate Change Law at Columbia Law School, New York.

The chapter authors also acknowledge the comments and feedback from the following individuals: Mook Bangalore, Jared Finnegan (Chapter 1); Justin Gundlach, Sroyon Mukherjee (Chapters 1 and 9); Murray Collins (Chapter 2); Samuela Bassi, Terry Townshend (Chapters 3 and 6); Keith Benes, Fergus Green, Augustine Lagarde, Georg Zachmann, Alyssa Gilbert, Xiaofan Zhao, Qi Ye (Chapter 3); Eric Brandstedt (Chapter 5); Richard Perkins (Chapter 6); Amalia Botter, Veerle Heyvaert, Tanj Ganguly (Chapter 9); Robert Falkner and Andrew Jordan (overall feedback).

The views expressed in this book, and any remaining errors, are the sole responsibility of the authors and the editorial team.
