

Contents

About the authors	vii
Foreword: ageism affects all of us negatively – and the law can help	xi
Liat Ayalon and Clemens Tesch-Romer
Introduction: between law, ageing and ageism	1
Israel (Issi) Doron and Nena Georgantzi
PART I THEORIES AND CONCEPTS
1 Equality, social justice and older people	15
Rosie Harding
2 Age, vulnerability and disability	37
Titti Mattsson
3 Ageism, moral agency and autonomy: getting beyond guardianship in the 21st century	50
Gerard Quinn, Ayelet Gur and Joanne Watson
PART II REALITIES AND LEGAL EXPERIENCES
4 Legal basis of active ageing: European developments	73
Barbara Mikołajczyk
5 Ageism, age discrimination and employment law in the EU	98
Ann Numhauser-Henning
6 Stereotyping and other “forms of discrimination” in the Chicago Declaration on the Rights of Older Persons and in the case law of the European Court of Human Rights	116
Eugenio Mantovani, Paul Quinn and Paul de Hert
7 The European Social Charter and the rights of older persons	146
Benny Spanier and Israel (Issi) Doron

8	Ageism and age discrimination in international human rights law Marijke De Pauw, Bridget Sleap and Nena Georgantzi	174
	Index	195